Bartender arrested for serving minors

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Lauren M. Steenburg, 22, an Antioch resident tending bar at the Sandbar Resort, was arrested on July 25 at 7 p.m. for selling alcohol to a minor at the resort.

Lake County Sheriff Gary Del Re said his office had received numerous complaints that Sandbar Resort was serving alcohol to minors, and the arrest came after a minor who was cooperating with the sheriff's office was served.

"A detective on the case knew someone under the age of 21 who would have no problem trying to purchase liquor," said Sgt. Gary Govekar of the Lake County Sheriff's Office. "This person is 19 years old and doesn't look over 19 years old."

He said the minor was taken to the bar and was able to purchase a beer. "Investigators were waiting nearby and the party signaled them once the beer was purchased and the arrest was made," said Govekar.

Steenburg, who was reportedly the only bartender working at the time, was charged with one count of unlawful sale of alcohol to a minor, and is scheduled to appear in the branch 3 court in Grayslake on Aug. 18. Additionally, Govekar said the bar owner would have to go before the Lake County Liquor Commission.

"The liquor commission has a lot of leeway," said Govekar. "There could be fines or the establishment could be shut down. It depends on the establishment and whether it has a record of problems."

At this time, the Sandbar Resort is open for business and its liquor license was not suspended or revoked.

"This is a busy time of year with the boat races and all, and that can make it tough. There are no hard and fast rules about when to card someone, but if someone looks young, it's in the best interest of the establishment to check," said Govekar.

He said the Lake County Sheriff's Office would not tolerate the sale of alcohol to minors. "We hope this will let all bar owners know that this is not acceptable," Govekar said.

Monkeypox quarantine lifted

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Officials from the Illinois Department of Agriculture wouldn't name the pet shop under quarantine because of the monkeypox virus as the quarantine has been lifted.

Jeff Squibb, a spokesman for the department, said that a six-week quarantine had been placed on pet stores across the state, including the Antioch location, that were known to have exotic pets like prairie dogs. He said an overlapping of time from when the last such animal was in a location meant that some establishments, in essence, were only under quarantine for one week.

"There have been no new cases in either humans or animals since June 20," he said. "There was some question of concern that animals could possibly carry the disease and not show symptoms. The quarantine was precautionary measure."

Please see MONKEYPOX /A5

Squibb said pet stores and individuals were given the option of moving the animals to another location while the premises were cleaned, disinfected and restocked.

"Once the high-risk animals were removed, other mammals that may have been exposed to them had to remain in quarantine for six weeks," he said. "There is a lot we don't know about monkeypox."

Squibb said six types of animals in Texas had tested positive for the disease, but did not show classic symptoms. "We took these measures because we're hoping to prevent monkeypox from becoming established (in the United States)," he said.

Because of the disease, Squibb said Gov. Rod Blagojevich made an executive order banning the sale or public display of prairie dogs.

Clock tower location uncertain

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Though previously village officials signed a resolution pledging a plot of land will be dedicated for a 50-foot clock tower in Antioch's downtown, the location may not end up being the corner of Main and Orchard where Village Hall sits.

The site resolution was signed so that Roland Schleusener and members of the Antioch Clock Tower Committee could raise money to build the tower, projected to be between $200-250,000. Now that commitments have been made for about half that amount, village officials are hedging on whether that will indeed be the location.

The goal in selecting a location is to have a spot that will show it off and will be accessible to those interested in seeing it.

Placing the clock tower in front of village hall would require moving three trees and a war memorial.

"I think this is a wonderful project," said Trustee Dorothy Larson. "My only concern is about the site. Moving a war memorial is something I don't do lightly."

When it was suggested that a better location might be across the street where Country Pontiac used to sit, committee member Jim LaFontaine said, "That property isn't developed. We don't know what would go there, and we would have to build a bigger foundation to get the same elevation."

Trustee Barbara Porch recommended waiting until the upcoming Route 83 corridor study is complete to see what the hired consultants suggest. Trustee Mary Turner concurred.

In the end, the board decided to allow the village attorney to work with the committee so it could use the village's tax-free number and deposit the donations for the project. LaFontaine said postponing a definite location decision would cause the clock tower committee to restructure its focus and could delay construction.

Schleusener a resident who used to teach a clock class at Antioch Community High School presented the idea back in February.

The clock would be electrically wound and would have two bells. The hourly bell would be louder and ring at the top of the clock, and quarter hours would be both lower in tone and ring from a lower position. The clock itself is an original Seth Thomas from 1917 and would account for about $50,000 of the project's total cost.

'Taste' sets attendance records

Restaurants report running out of food due to large crowds

Though the weather wasn't perfect over the four-day festival, rain didn't keep the crowds from attending Antioch's Taste of Summer.

Thursday, the festival was open until 10 p.m. despite weather-related power outages. Acoustic Blues didn't need the electricity to perform and did so under the seating tent.

"American English made a great finale for the Taste," said Barbara Porch, executive director of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. "It made for four very full days of fun and entertainment, and the crowds showed that."

Porch said everything went smooth and touts the "perfect" location for the festival off of the Orchard extension back by the William E. Brook Memorial Sanctuary and Wetlands. "We never stop walking the area to make sure that everything is going as it should and stop any potential problems before they happen," she said.

Several of the restaurants reported running out of food on Sunday. For The Jerk Brothers, it was an ideal opener as the restaurant officially opened on Lake Street the Monday following the festival.

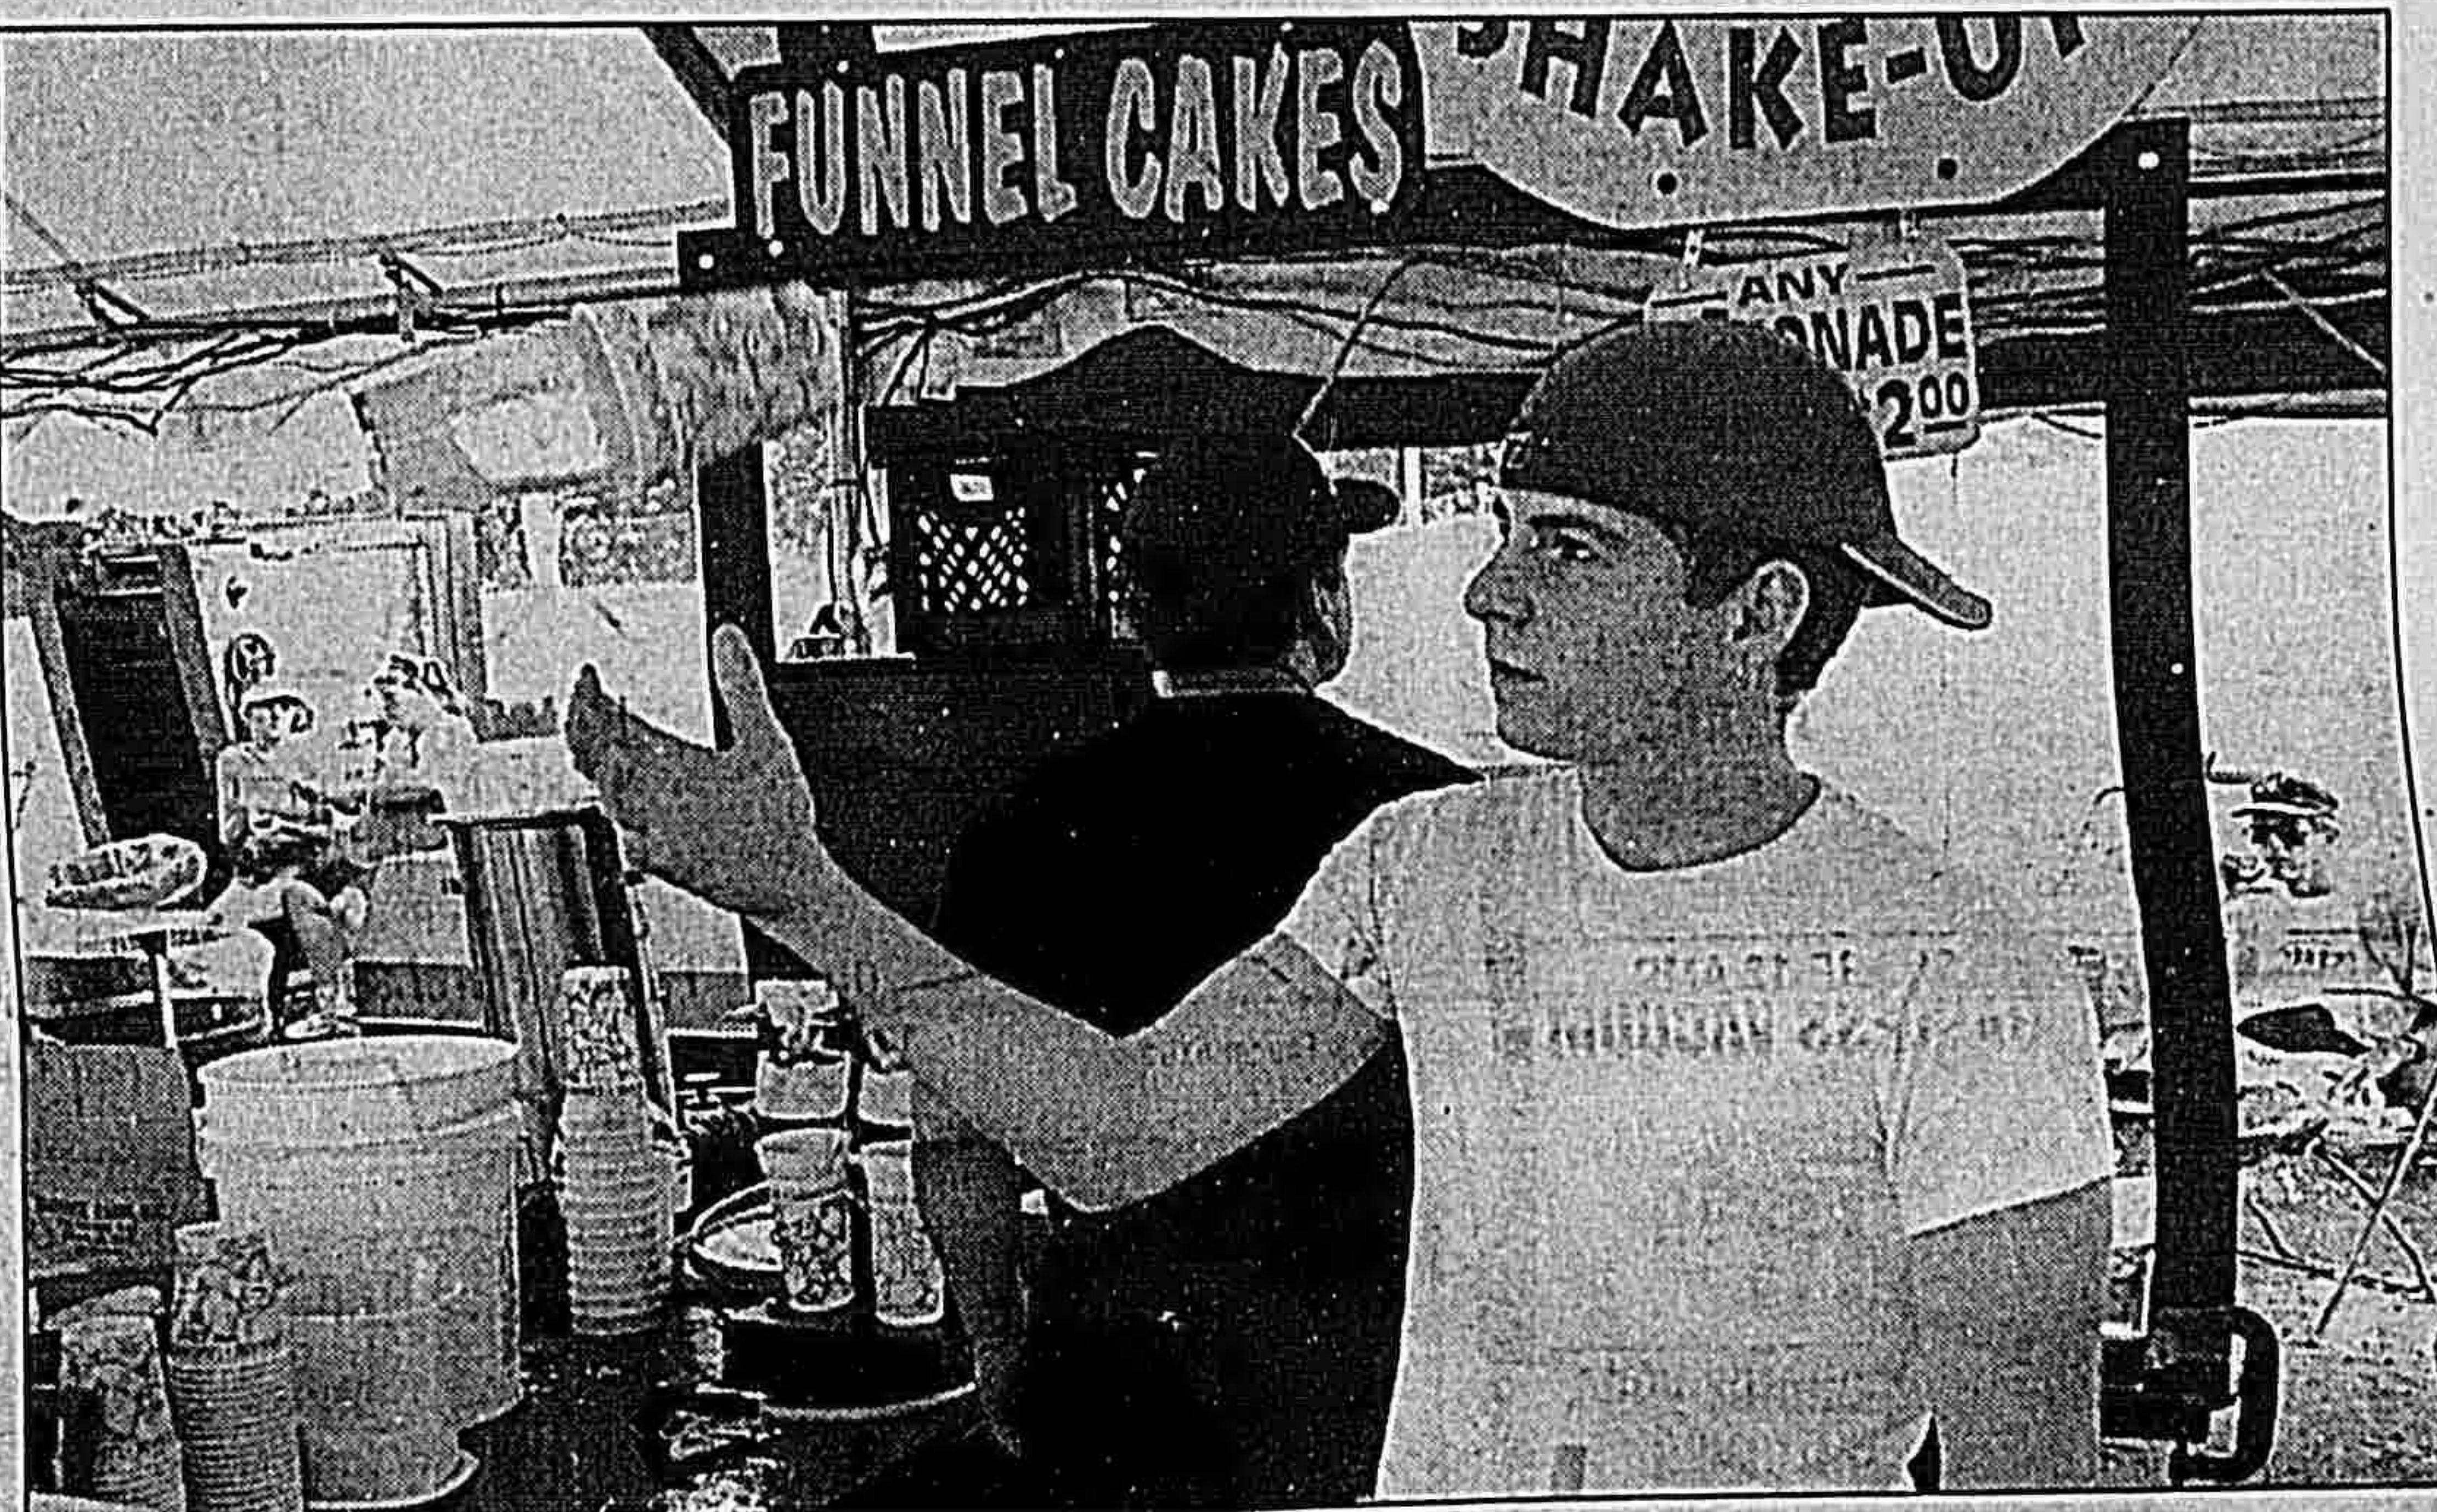

Porch said the signage directing Taste-goers to parking, as well as the events, was more than ample. "We were able to do things without infringing on the parking of the regular shops on the east side of Main Street."

Volunteers help make the festival work. Various businesses and organizations provided the volunteer force including the Rotary Club, the Lions Club, the First National Bank-Employee Owned and the State Bank of The Lakes as well as the Village of Antioch and the chamber that sponsors the event.

Porch said she was thrilled by the crowds who attended. "I appreciate all the people who took time to enjoy themselves in a good family atmosphere," she said. "The Taste was great last year, but it was even better this year."

District 34 seeks to replace board member

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

It's back to the drawing board for Antioch Community Consolidated District 34 as it seeks to replace board member Mark Oldroyd, who replaced long-standing board member Gary Burnette about three months prior.

"It's a shame, but Mr. Oldroyd was transferred," said Supt. John Hunt. "We had seven strong candidates at the time, and we selected him. We've notified the other six that we need to fill the position again."

The individual appointed will fill the remainder of the term that runs until the spring of 2005. Those interested are asked to submit a letter outlining their interest in the position as well as a resume.

Hunt said, "We aren't looking for anything specific. We like to have a well-balanced board with different backgrounds and from a variety of occupations and interests."

Individuals need to submit the information to the board by Aug. 15 by mailing it to Steve Turner, president, Antioch C.C. School District 34 Board of Education, 800 N. Main St., Antioch, IL 60002. To qualify, one must be a resident of the district.

Hunt said the board has 45 days to fill the position.

The board meets once a month, on the third Tuesday.

"In addition to our regular meeting, all board members serve on two or three committees," said Hunt. "It's a commitment of two or three meetings per month, but the committee meetings don't tend to be quite so long."

For more information, contact Hunt at 847-838-8401.

The list of items to be auctioned off at the annual combined Antioch Lions Club chicken barbecue and Antioch Rescue Squad continues to grow as the day draws near.

The event will take place on Aug. 3 at Williams Park located behind the Antioch Public Library, from 11 a.m.-6 p.m.

A barbecue chicken dinner, complete with fresh dessert, can be enjoyed in the park or carried out for $8.

The auction preview will be held at 11 a.m. followed by the silent auction at noon and the live auction at 1 p.m.

Rescue Squad Chief Wayne Sobczak said, "The building is packed and we're still getting things in on a daily basis."

New loot includes a fully-processed 206 pound pig donated by Avalon Petroleum, a 109 pound fully-processed sheep from Poli.

for the rescue squads' operating expenses. Typically, about 3,000 people will be served chicken and nearly $50,000 will be raised for the rescue squad.

Congratulations to Antioch Youth Little League 12-year-old boys' team.

The all-stars took third in the state championships hosted by North Riverside.

Proud parents report that they did a great job and should pat themselves on the back as many of the other teams who made it to the championships come from much larger communities with a larger pool of 12-year-old boys from which to make a team.

DUI

Theresa L. Przybylinski, 37, of 26150 W. Channel Drive, Antioch, was arrested for driving under the influence on July 28 at 2:23 a.m. on Route 173 west of Route 83.

Police noticed her front headlight was out. When she turned onto Route 173, Przybylinski turned onto the shoulder. She told police she did this because she was having an argument with her friend.

The officer detected the strong odor or alcoholic beverage on Przybylinski's breath. She failed all field sobriety tests requested of her.

Przybylinski was arrested for DUI and issued citations for improper lighting and DUI. She refused chemical testing, and posted her driver's license and $100 for bond.

Kyle E. Bulava, 18, of 1002 Kenilworth, Round Lake Beach, was arrested for driving under the influence on July 23 at 12:59 a.m. on North Avenue east of Parkway.

Police saw his vehicle make a wide left turn, driving onto the shoulder of North Avenue. Bulava reportedly swerved back toward the center of the road and accelerated rapidly. He made a sudden turn onto Second Street when squad car lights were activated.

Bulava told police his driver's license was suspended which was confirmed through LEADS/SOS. The officer detected the strong odor of alcoholic beverage on his breath and saw a can of beer in the dashboard cup holder.

Bulava failed all field sobriety tests and was arrested for DUI. He was issued citations for DUI, driving while suspended and illegal transportation of alcohol. He was held in a cell to await bond.

No valid driver's license

Kathyann I. Hietala, 39, of 1047 Main St., Antioch, was arrested for driving without a valid driver's license on July 21 at 11:45 p.m. on Lake Street and Toft.

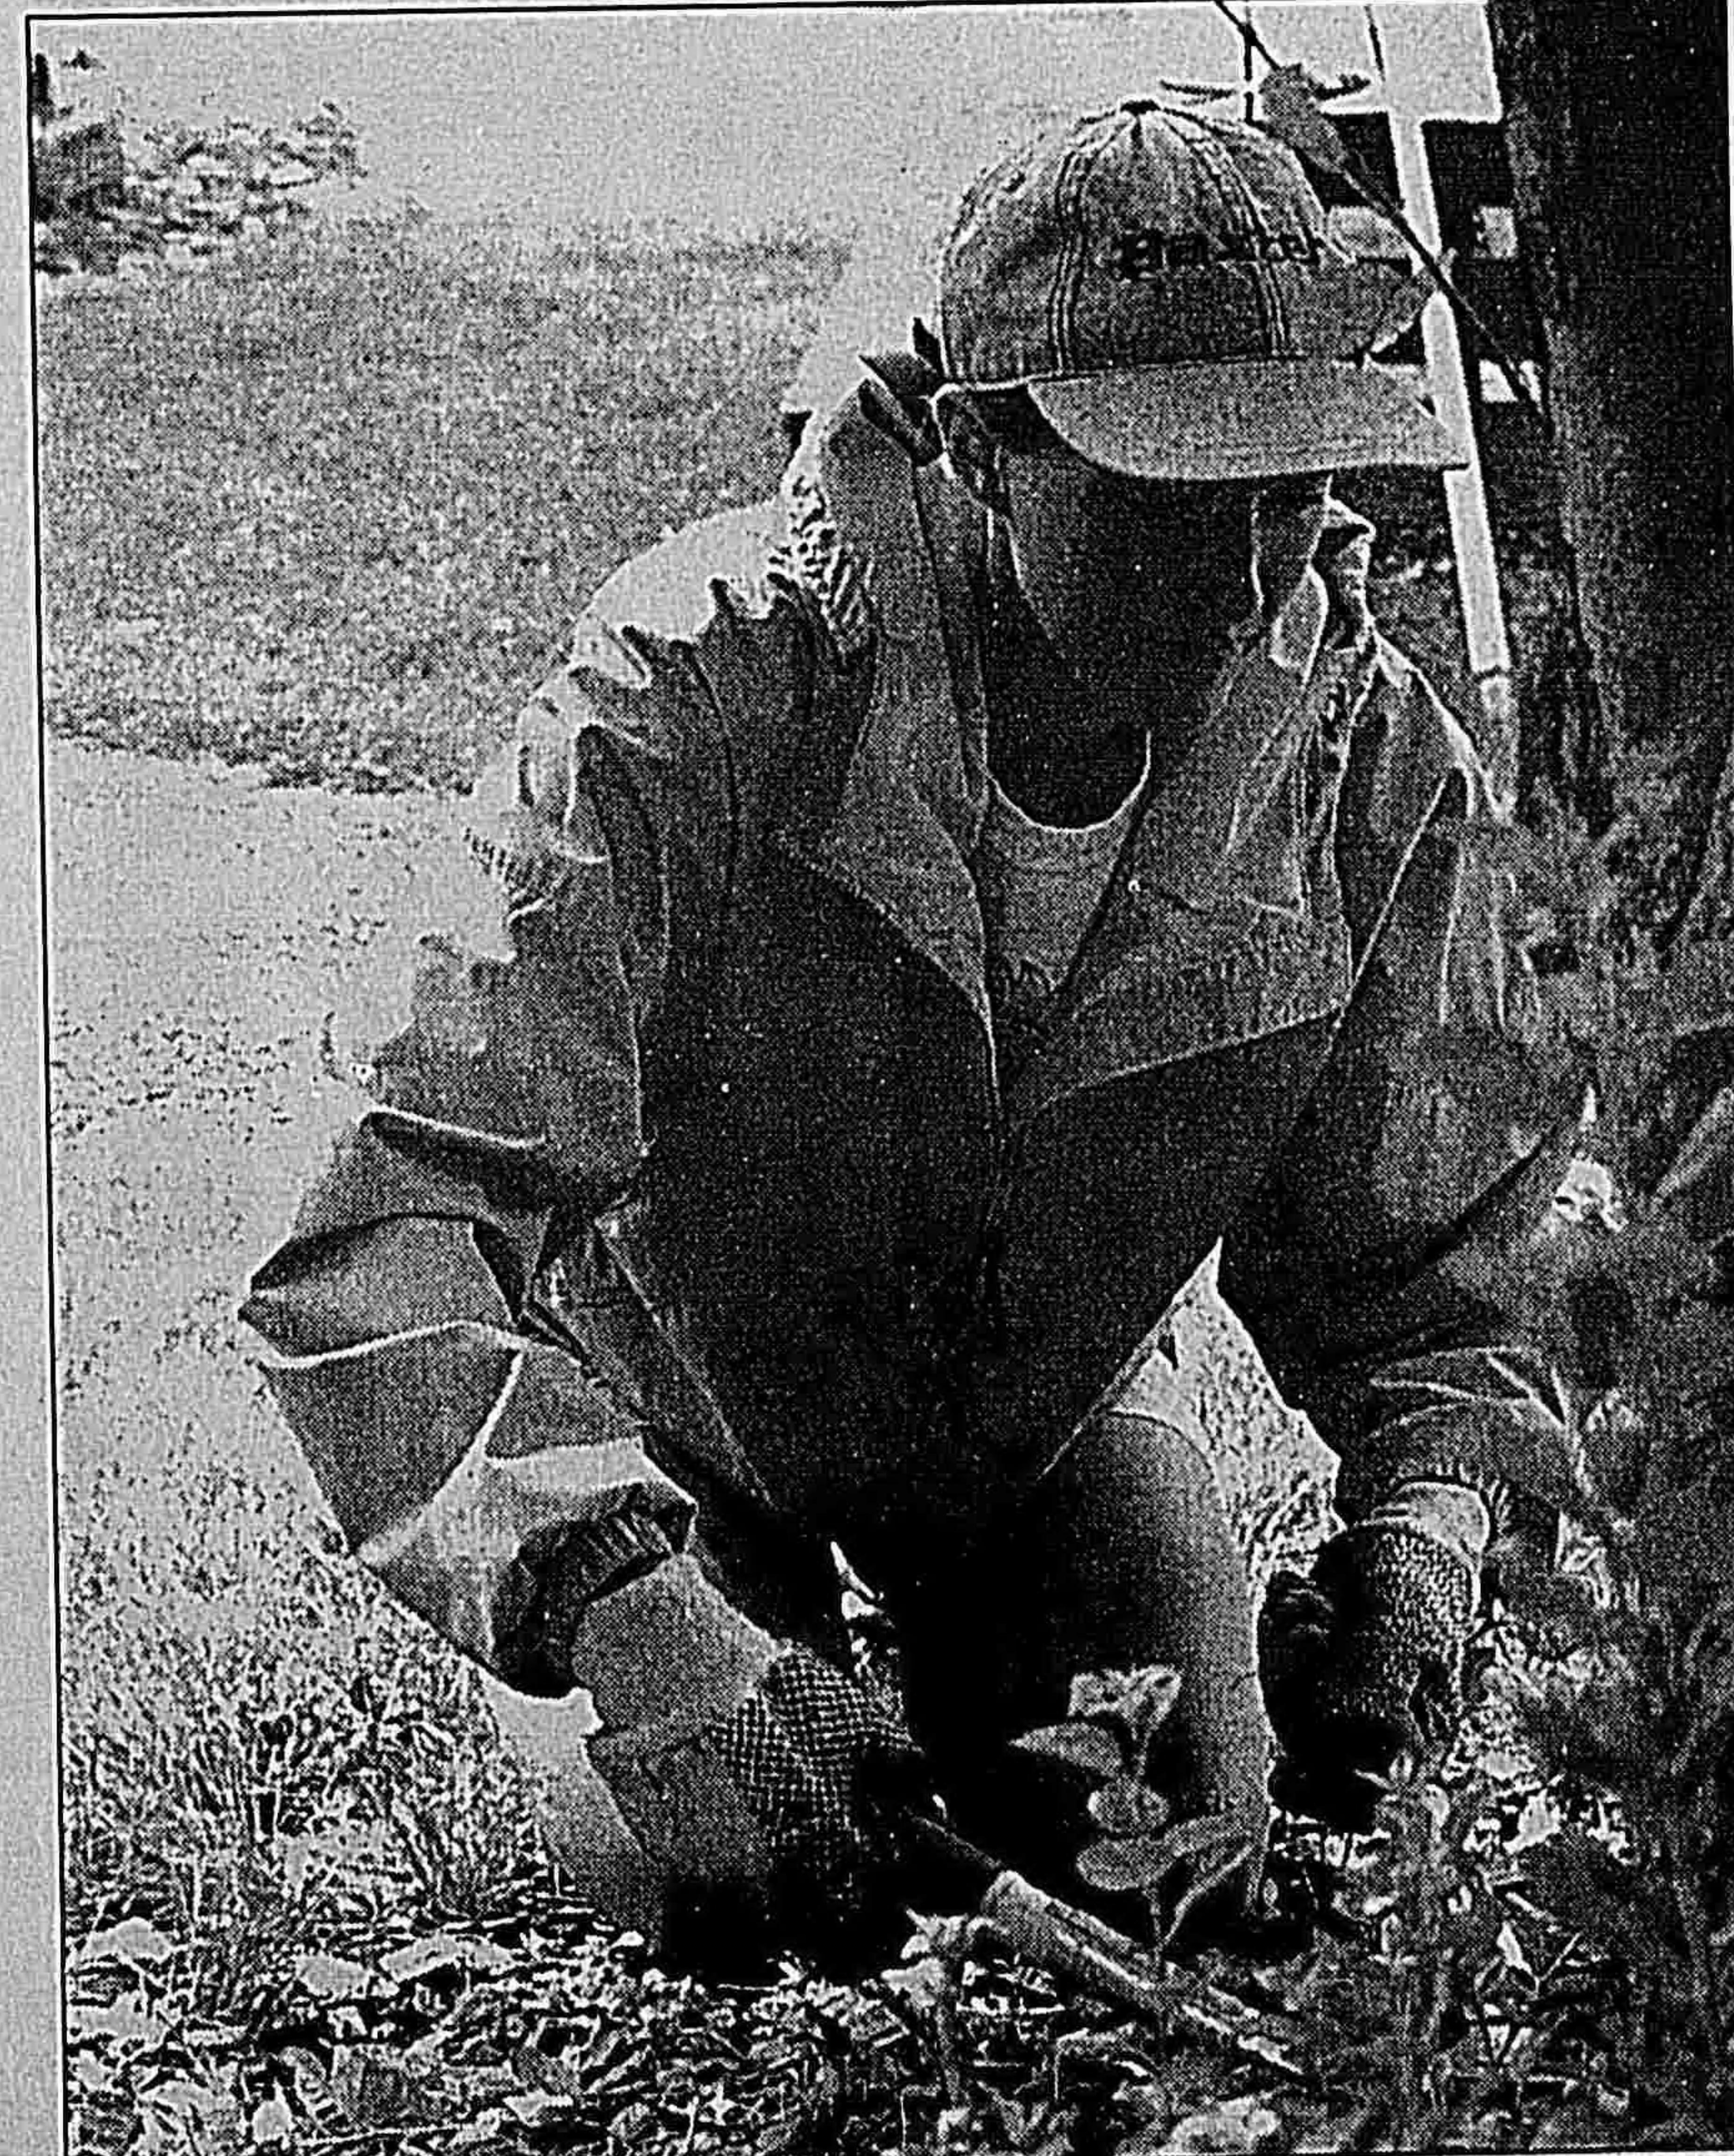

She was stopped for having an inoperative headlamp. A check through LEADS returned information that she did not have a valid driver's license.

Hietala was arrested and issued citations for improper lighting and driving without a valid driver's license. She was released on personal recognizance pending her Aug. 27 court date.

Sheriff's office looking for more reserve deputies

Lake County Sheriff Gary Del Re announced that Lake County Sheriff's Office is looking for new members to increase the force of the Reserve Deputy Unit.

"The unit is made up of a dedicated group of volunteers that augments the sheriff's office in times of emergencies. It assists local governments and charitable organizations with traffic and crowd control, as well as assisting on lost persons and crime searches throughout the county," said Sgt. Gary Govekar of the Lake County Sheriff's Office.

Some of the regularly scheduled events the Reserve Deputy Unit is employed include the Lake County Fair, Vernon Hills Days, the Lake County Marathon and assorted summer festivals. Emergency call-outs for the unit have included floods, tornadoes, major fires and traffic accidents.

Volunteers for the Reserve Deputy Unit must be at least 21 years old, Lake County residents and be of good moral character. All members of the Unit receive over 100 hours of training and are expected to donate at least 140 hours of service per year.

For more information or an application, call the sheriff's office Department of Emergency Services at 847-377-7100.

When asked why the department of agriculture doesn't ban the sale altogether, Squibb said authority is derived from the Dangerous Animal Act.

"The animals would have to pose a public risk to ban the sale of them as pets," he said. "We cannot just start prohibiting the importation and sale for pets."

He said Illinois law prohibits the sale of animals deemed dangerous, such as lions and tigers, through the Dangerous Animal Act.

"Zoos and circuses have to have a Federal Exhibitor's Permit to have these types of animals," Squibb said. "The General Assembly (of Illinois) could establish laws that would prohibit the sale of 'wild animals' like these as pets, but to my knowledge there is nothing in the works."

Order of the Rainbow installs officers

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

A new corps of officers was installed for Antioch Assembly 23 of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

Presiding officer is Tinaya Mraz. Other officers are Meghan Kory, Katie Batcheller, Grace Gasper, Bridget Fee, Heather Bednar, Jenny Gleisner, Samantha Urban, Emma Weckler and Jenny Arias.

The order is made up girls between the ages of 11 and 20, and is sponsored by the Masonic Fraternity. Goals of the organization are to teach poise, leadership and the meaning of friendship while building character, commitment and communication skills.

Adult advisor Jennifer Witt said, "It's structured a little different from Girl Scouts, but is similar in some ways. For instance, one of the things we focus on is public speaking to help the girls in future ventures."

Work with A Safe Place in Waukegan is among the community service projects of the order.

Though the Masonic Fraternity sponsors the Order of the Rainbow, it is not mandatory that girls have Masonic affiliation to join.

"There is an informational form that an interested girl would fill out that is read at one of our meetings," said Witt. "A group of the girls would visit and ask questions and then there would be an initiation."

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 885 Main Street, Antioch. Those who may be interested in joining are welcome to visit a meeting.

The name was given to the order as the rainbow has seven colors, each representing a lesson to "guide girls into womanhood" including love, religion, nature, immortality, fidelity, patriotism and service.

Adult volunteers supervise all charity and service projects, dances and parties.

For more information, call Witt at 262-843-8076 or Jeanne Fee at 847-838-9735.

Loon Lakes association meets Aug. 16

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Loon Lakes Management Association annual meeting will take place on Saturday, August 16, from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. at the West Loon Lake boat launch at the corner of Villa Rica and Grass Lake roads.

The meeting is open to the more than 900 property owners within the Special Service Area 8, in and around both east and west Loon Lakes.

An election will be held for the positions of vice president and secretary. "The current vice president, Ken Fenske, and I are running unopposed for the positions," said Jim Hammerlund. "The polls will be open from 11 a.m.-2 p.m., the entire meeting time, and then we'll tally the votes after." Additionally, two "at large" directors will be elected.

Hot dogs and hamburgers will be served to the residents attending the meeting.

Hammerlund said the big project for the year is to dredge the channel between east and west Loon Lakes.

"The Lakes Management Unit of the Lake County Health Department is working on this," said Hammerlund. "Right now, the channel is impassable. We're hoping the work will be done in 2004."

He said the plan is to put a seawall on one side and dredge out the channel. "Right now they're doing a study (Lakes Management Unit) so it depends on funding and how involved the project ends up being," he said.

Residents of that area are encouraged to attend the meeting, to vote and have some fun over lunch and other planned activities.

Hammerlund said the area is growing and what used to be an association of about 650 property owners has grown to one of nearly 1,000 property owners.

"More homes are being built in the area, so we are growing," he said, adding that while he and Fenske are running unopposed, write-in votes are welcome.

AYB 12's 'staying alive'

The Antioch Youth Baseball 12-year-old team stayed alive in the Little League State Tournament.

Trailing 4-1 to Evergreen Park in the third game, Antioch tied the contest on a three-run home run by Kevin Pettitt. Evergreen Park reclaimed the lead at 5-4 in the sixth but Logan Kent's RBI single produced the tying run. Then, unfortunately for Evergreen Park, Antioch's consecutive walks to Pettitt and Johnny King allowed for the game-winner to cross the plate in the bottom of the sixth. With the win, Evergreen Park was eliminated in the double-elimination format. Kent picked up the win on the hill, tossing all six innings.

In early round action, Antioch defeated Evergreen Park in the opening game 4-3. Pettitt picked up the win on the hill. The only loss for Antioch came in the form of a 20-8 decision to Naperville National. Kent and Alec Paramski each homered.

Antioch was one of three remaining teams in the tournament. They are joined by Moline and Naperville National.

On the line for the tournament winner—a trip to the national regional competition, where they will represent the State of Illinois. The ultimate goal is the Little League World Series, which will be held in August in Williamsport, Penn.

Antioch earned the trip to state tournament by winning the Dist. 16 tournament title.

AYB 12-year-old roster

DERBY

Other derby notes

Auto Race Promotions, Inc. was the proud sponsor of the Lake County Fair Demolition Derby. And Waukegan's 'Tigger' Underwood served as the announcer for both the 'B' and 'A' feature events.

"It's a blast, trying to get the crowd into it," said Underwood, who has announced derby's for 14 years overall. This was his first Lake County Fair Derby. He has also announced derby's at Joliet for four years and Sycamore for the past two.

"Fans love to see the best of the best, and that's why it's so packed for the features," he added. "Plus, it's bragging rights for the drivers."

Rules change

A new rule change was implemented for this year's derby. Starting this year, cars basically from 1978-and-newer are eligible.

"I kind of benefits everyone," said Underwood. "Because you have a newer car, you're not going to get totally demolished right off the bat by someone that, say, has an older car that they have built up for years."

The new rule on the age of the car one can enter includes General Motors vehicles from 1978 to the present, 1980 models and newer Ford Chrysler's, and 1980-and-newer front-wheel drive models.

Thanks, George!

A special thanks goes out to George Sims, promoter of the Lake County Fair Demolition Derby's. The fair is in its 75th year and the derby continues to be one of the week's feature attractions. And there is no sign of that changing anytime soon.

"I also expect some kids from our 16-and-under team to come in and contribute. We'll have a heck of a team next year."

INDIANS

Still, Spino was pleased with his team during the tournament.

"We had a really good tournament," Spino said. "We only had 14 kids and couldn't ask for anymore from them."

Spino is also excited about next year's team.

"Because we were so young this season, we'll have a lot of experienced kids back next year," Spino said.

Coles has a 'blast' overseas

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

Scott Coles described his trip to Amsterdam in a few, short words.

"It was a blast," he summed up upon his return to Antioch.

Coles, a 2003 graduate of Antioch Community High School, played center and right field for the USA Baseball Athletes International squad.

"We finished in third place. We were unbeaten in pool play, but lost in the medal round to Holland," Coles said.

Coles continued to hit well overseas, as he was one of the top-20 in average.

"It was a good experience. The pitching was a little different than what we are used to with not as much speed. I had played center field before, although I am more of a natural right fielder," Cole said.

Coles, of Lake Villa, played on the same team that included Wauconda standout Jack Kopacz. Coaches included Jeff Sefcik, an assistant at Wauconda High.

Fun on the trip included visits to downtown Amsterdam and seeing old places. The opening and closing ceremonies featured each player being introduced.

Coles is preparing to attend Monmouth College this fall. Kopacz will attend the College of St. Francis.

He also had a fielding average of .998 this spring, and was captain on the Antioch High squad.

A National Honor Society member, he is the son of Rich and Ann Coles.

Coles wishes to thank his many sponsors who helped pay his way to Amsterdam and Apeldoorn, Holland.

Stretch run for HoopStars

The Northern Lake County Hoopstars Warrior fifth-grade boy's travel basketball team competed in two American Youth Basketball Tour (AYBT) tournaments.

At the first event, hosted by the University of Notre Dame, the team finished with a 2-3 record. They defeated the Chicago Bearcats and Kalamazoo. The losses came against the South Bend Soldiers, the South Bend Bomb Squad, and the Chicago Bearcats.

The team's leading scorers for the tournament were John Androu, who had 38 points, Trevor Erbach (34), Stephen Brocious (26), and Jeff Paul (20).

Others chipping in included Daniel Perry with 12 points and a team-high six assists. Defensively, Androu grabbed 24 rebounds while collecting 11 steals. Omar Tinson grabbed 18 rebounds and had five steals. Matthew Dickinson snared 15 boards to go along with three steals. Jonathan Duncan also grabbed 14 rebounds while collecting nine steals.

The highlight of the tournament was the team's victory over the Chicago Bearcats in game 4. The team had previously lost on two occasions to the Bearcats, but won the game resoundingly 41-30.

An identical 2-3 record was then posted at the second tournament, played at Union Grove High School. The team defeated the Laconia Spartans and the Lake County Legends but fell to the Milton Mad Dogs, the GC Gators and Peoria's DA Future.

Over the course of the tournament, Erbach totaled 63 points, Brocious had 48, Duncan added 34, while providing 11 assists, and Paul added another 24 points. Erbach and Duncan led the team defensively, with 36 and 34 rebounds, respectively. Duncan also had 12 steals, while Nick Mayer added 12 rebounds and eight steals in a solid defensive effort.

The team, coached by Jack Brocious and Bob Dickinson, played in its final summer tournament last weekend at the Libertyville Sports Complex.

C'mon in, the water's fine—

Olympian touts swimming safety

By DENYS BUCKSTEN
Staff Reporter

Lake County, indeed the entire country, may have no greater advocate for swimming safety than Adolph Klefer, an Olympic champion, Tarzan candidate and developer of the nylon swim suit.

Klefer, a 1936 Olympic swimming champion is 85 years old and swims in the indoor pool at his Wadsworth home, not far from his business, Adolph Klefer Sports Group, on Route 173 in Zion.

"Swimming is one of the best sports anyone can get into," said the 200-meter backstroke medallist at the Olympic Games in Berlin, Germany.

"Not only do you have the benefits of exercising your entire body and cardiovascular, but it's a sport that can lead to other, water-related sports (like skiing, water polo, diving, Triathlon competition)," he said.

A Chicago native, Klefer enlisted in the Navy during World War II and became concerned with the massive loss of life from drowning by sailors during training and wartime.

Klefer has devoted his life to swimming safety, writing manuals that trained some 33,000 U.S. Navy swim Instructors while a Navy officer, and working with the late Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley to make public swimming pools available thousands of Chicago youths.

Klefer was the first swimmer in timed competition to do the 100-yard backstroke in under one minute, at the 1936 Illinois High School championships.

That same year Klefer met German Chancellor Adolph Hitler prior to the start of the Olympic Games, in which Klefer won a gold medal in his specialty and Americans, led by Jesse Owens in track, demolished Hitler's claims of Aryan supremacy.

In 1946, Klefer started Adolph Klefer & Associates in Chicago. During the following decade, as the company grew, Klefer devoted himself to helping children in Chicago to learn to swim.

His company is credited with designing the first nylon tank suit in 1948, a light weight alternative to the heavy wool and cotton suits in use at the time.

In the 1960s Klefer and other sports legends teamed up to build swimming pools across the city, especially for inner city youth.

Today, Klefer is involved in the advancement of swimming as a sport; aquatic therapy, safety and rescue equipment; and training gear.

backyard pools booming

By DENYS BUCKSTEN
Staff Reporter

It is reported that the earliest drawings of humans swimming are in the Kebir Desert in western Egypt—6,000 years ago. Clearly, swimming is an activity that has caught on. In Lake County, with 200 inland lakes, thousands of indoor and outdoor public and private pools, there is no shortage of places to jump in. According to the Lake County Health Department, there are 232 swimming pools at hotels, park districts, schools, apartment complexes and other non-residential sites.

According to the National Spa and Pool Institute, there are approximately 4.2 million in-ground pools in the U.S., 3.4 million above ground pools and 5.6 million tubs or spas. Not surprisingly, California leads the way with 961,184 in-ground pools, 315,027 above ground and a 1.6 tubs/spas to live up to its playland reputation. Florida and Texas run two-three with line scores of 621,852, 160,502, 557,755; and 382,094, 154,827, 447,292, respectively.

In Illinois, where the outdoor pool season in Lake County runs from about May 1 to late October, there are 75,463 in-ground pools, 164,351 above-ground and 130,816 tubs or spas.

But, what may be the bedrock of countians' love of swimming—the backyard pool—is very much alive and doing well. The yellow pages are filled with listings for pool and spa contractors, pool care, pool repair, pool water supply and fencing specialists.

One can spend $6.99 for a rigid plastic kiddie pool small enough to wash clothes in, or upwards of $100,000 for the largest, accessory-laden, in-ground pools.

Having a standard size, 40 by 20 foot, in-ground pool in your backyard, with amenities is just the start of the expenses. It means higher gas and/or electric bills for heating the water, water treatment chemicals, added insurance, and probably a lot more potato chips as friends and neighbors begin to drop by.

But, the pool is also the start of savings, say those who've invested in in-ground or above-ground pools. The benefits often include cost savings by having home-based activities instead of hitting the restaurants or malls, and the peace of mind of knowing where your kids are.

Bonnie Thompson Carter, Lake County Board Dist. 5 representative, purchased a 18-by-36, in-ground pool at her 2-acre, Ingleside home 15 years ago. She and husband Tom Carter, and four children, are pool-oriented people.

"It is a center point for family gathering," she said, adding that her family was the first in her area along Route 134 to get one. "It certainly brings a family together for fun and laughs. When we have 15 kids in the pool, I kind of wish we had gotten a 20 by 40 pool, but along with that comes added expenses."

"We purposely didn't put the pool right outside the back door. We have two acres and it's about 50 yards back."

Carter, who works out of her home, said she was raised as a pool person and for her, relaxing from the stress of work means walking out to the pool, and getting away from the heat and humidity of the summer with a nice, cool dip.

The Carters had considered extra amenities, but have passed on several. They have no spa and no diving board, the latter requiring a 9-foot deep end, instead of the 7.5 feet they have now. The shallow end of their pool is four feet deep.

The 'Flatlander' Files: On the road in Wisconsin Intruders at the Door

I'd traded my DEET and calamine lotion for a rental condo in Door County. Poor, carefree Dad was left to keep the rest of the family from scalping each other at "Camp Whine-a-Bunch."

Finally, I could really get in touch with my essential being... helped by a five-pound box of smuggled chocolates, and a soothing whirlpool that didn't require a dose of laundry softener before the rinse cycle.

Anyway, laundry duty seemed a small price to pay for bliss. And, unlike Dad, the hole I was staring into wasn't a pit toilet.

Peninsula State Park had developed a temporary plumbing problem at their campgrounds—no running water, no washing, no flush toilets. This spelled big problems for my eight-year-old daughter: her Barbie does not "do" pit toilets!

Dad was the only camper that came home without one of the park patches earned for completing various activities like fishing or hiking. After escorting her "ladyship" to every working rest stop—no matter how far, no matter how late—he quipped, "I may not be a Junior Ranger or Junior Naturalist, but I definitely deserve a 'potty patch'!"

So began my family's insidious intrusion into my space. First, it was periodic pleas that ended up with someone playing with my "head." And, while they were in there, they figured they might as well take a shower. And, by the way, did I have anything to eat? Before I knew it I was cooking, cleaning, and shopping for a tribe of vagrants that were more interested in switching cable channels than "digging nature."

Time to break out, before I ended up breaking heads. For once, we were going to dine without me left holding the bottle of dish soap. For once, we were going to get some culture without waiting for the animated video to come out.

Door County has plenty to offer visitors in both categories. The traditional fish boil is popular at many area restaurants, so be sure to make reservations. A fish boil is truly an event. Potatoes, onions, and whitefish are boiled in a large cauldron over a wood fire. When the fish is cooked, kerosene is thrown on the fire, producing a huge blaze which burns off grease that's risen to the top of the salted water. The result is a light, tasty meal unique to the area...and enough pre-dinner entertainment to keep the kids from unscrewing the caps off all the salt and pepper shakers.

As for entertainment, try Peninsula State Park's "Theatre Under the Stars," the American Folklore Theatre. This group's fresh, creative offerings, season after season, have made it one of our family traditions—and the only time we all keep our mouths shut and our hands to ourselves! Once again, we enjoyed family fare with true wit and great music: "Ya, Ya, You Betcha!" a collection of Scandinavian tales with a Wisconsin "warp," and an AFT classic, "Guys on Ice," with riotous humor set in an ice fishing shanty. For more information on American Folklore Theatre's 2003 season, visit www.folkloretheatre.com, or call 920-854-6117. Also, as park campers, we were entitled to discounted tickets, even if our condo microwave saw more action than Dad's camp cook stove.

Once again, it was time for a change. One of us had turned 14 on the Fourth of July, and was well on his way to turning on us to establish his independence.

One of us was now just "hanging loose" on the condo couch while I swept around his feet.

This meant the only other adult was currently dodging water balloons on her way to the laundry room...it was time to split for another year of the same old thing.

U.S. Tae-Kwon-Do Academy develops champions in life and sport

In today's world of short attention spans and quick fixes, it's refreshing to find an outlet for kids to find the champion within themselves. That's what parents and students will find at the U.S. Tae-Kwon-Do Academy in Antioch, IL. Mr. Tim Walker, the chief instructor at the Academy. A third-degree black belt, has been practicing the discipline of Tae-Kwon-Do for 14 years under Grand Master Koang Woong Kim, one of only 25 ninth-degree black belts in the world, and Master John Seiber a fifth-degree black belt. The Academy and Mr. Walker are members of the United States Tae-Kwon-Do Union which is also a member of the U.S. Olympic Committee. Mr. Walker has successfully competed nationally and internationally.

Tae-Kwon-Do is the art of self-defense and an action philosophy and Mr. Walker brings his vast experience to the school. While Tae-Kwon-Do is usually the study of self-defense, there are other benefits associated with this sport. According to Mr. Walker, "Tae-Kwon-Do training instills the young athlete with pride, self-discipline and self-confidence. The experience of doing their personal best helps build their character. Not only are they getting physical training, they are learning respect for themselves and others. We teach them to stay focused until their job is complete. This kind of training can only help them in all other aspects of life." His students range in age from five years to adult. "We have entire members of families taking the classes together." Mr. Walker believes that there is an advantage to begin training at an early age. "Some kids begin the program as early as five years old."

The biggest thing about getting them in here as kids is that it becomes a way of life for them. They learn to take direction, they are learning to focus and most importantly they are learning respect for themselves and others. By the time they're 12 or 13 they've got 5 or 6 years in this."

Not only does Mr. Walker have the respect and admiration of his students, anyone observing his class and teaching techniques will see that the parents of his students are his greatest supporters. According to one parent, "What we've gotten out of this program is enormous. The little bit that we've put into it, we've gotten 10 times back out of it."

In addition to Tae-Kwon-Do, the Academy also offers classes and instruction in Adult Cardio and Kickboxing. For more information on U.S. Tae-Kwon-Do Academy, located at 750 West Route 173 in Antioch, please call 847-838-5174.

POOL

Aqua Pool & Spa Pros in Lindenhurst, have been in the business more than 20 years and owner Mike Dare said that Americans now, more than ever, are into cocooning. "Pretty much that's what a lot of people in the industry think," said Dare. "People are spending more money in their backyards, and not on expensive vacations. They want to keep the kids in the backyards, and not take them somewhere expensive."

"The economy hasn't really hurt the pool industry," he said. "The second reason is that interest rates are down so much. People do a home equity loan and have a pool in the backyard for $50 or less added to their monthly payments."

In the northern Lake County area where his business is located, many residents are getting in-ground pools with high-grade vinyl liners in the ground. Although a typical pool purchase with vinyl is 20 by 40 feet, Dare said vinyl can be used on pools as long as 60 feet.

With vinyl, the pool base is made of concrete and Vermiculite, a composite that lets moisture pass through, and thus prevents cracking common to all-concrete pools.

"On the North Shore in-ground pools are still concrete (and not vinyl), and spas are becoming very popular," said Dare.

Of the spas, many are portable, installed on decks or patios. Many spas are spacious and high-powered enough to use year round, even during cold Midwest winters.

In wetland areas, spas are being set up with high-end screened porches to ward off mosquitoes. "Most spas are run 12 months a year; they don't need winterizing."

Dare said the costs of pool maintenance don't have to be prohibitive; common sense and economy measures can keep the bills down.

"With maintenance, electricity for the lights and pump, and chemicals, you could figure $1,000 for a season," he said. "But a lot of (cost effectiveness) is water temperature. Some people have a $400 gas bill because the water is 92 degrees instead of 82 degrees. Most people prefer 86 degree pool water."

Dare said that from the time a customer contacts his business until "you're ready for the first pool party, you're looking at from eight to 12 weeks. The largest wait by far is the permit process and the process by Com Ed to move the electrical."

For those who can't afford an in-ground or above-ground pool, the local hardware store offers a wide range of portable and inflatable pools, from kiddie pools at $7 and $10-45 by-60 inch rigid plastic, to the larger blowup pools.

Larry Idstein, manager of Gurnee's Ace Hardware, said "we sell a lot of the bigger, blow-up pools. It's probably the next step toward getting that big above-ground or in-ground pool."

When the thermometer soars toward 80 degrees, said Idstein, "buying a swimming pool becomes an impulse buy, especially the five or 10-foot pools."

Idstein said Ace had sold about 50 six- by 10 foot pools, with a filter pump, retailing at $150, by mid-July. This size pool, he said, is put up at the start of a swim season and left up until the end.

Such a pool is the anti-public-pool pool. "This is one in which the moms can still be doing things at home, while keeping an eye on the kids right outside in the backyard and not worrying about packing everybody up."

"And I have adults tell me that they come home from work on a hot day, and they get in it," he said.

Fun side of yoga being filmed for video

On August 8 and 14 at the Montessori School of Lake Forest, there will be a filming of a yoga video/DVD. Every person connected to this production is a resident of the Lakeland area. It's not Hollywood, but it will be a hit everywhere.

Marlene Molay Brown, PhD, is the instructor and is the producer of the video/DVD. "This will be unlike any other yoga production," she said. "It's fun and it's casual. You'll see 'regular people,' like your neighbors. We don't wear fancy shmancy clothing and our legs don't go around our necks. Most of us are not in our 20s and 30s and we don't weigh 100 pounds. It's for everyone."

Here's a list of the professional:

Brown, a Round Lake resident, finished college and received her teaching degree after her children started school. She was a community activist and explored a few careers, in addition to teaching. Brown was always interested in health and wellness, using natural remedies and techniques. She is a Reiki Master/Teacher (energy balancing) and last year at age 64 she received her PhD from the American Institute of Holistic Theology.

Marlene is a health consultant and lecturer. She also can perform ministerial ceremonies. Now at 65 her goal was to make Yoga available to the average person, the ones who have been turned off by other videos or classes.

For information on how you can purchase the yoga video (VHS) or DVD, go to Marlene's web site: www.iwishyouwell.com, where you will be notified when it is ready for purchase.

'Go Batty'

Ring the whole family out to a "Going Batty" and view colony of bats at Lakewood Forest Preserve on Friday and Saturday, August 8-9 from 7:30-9 p.m. Learn why their flight patterns differ from birds, how many mosquitoes they can devour in an hour, and what you can do to encourage this natural mosquito predator to visit your backyard. Then, enjoy a summer sunset while looking for the bats that reside at Lakewood.

"Going Batty" programs are open to adults and families with children ages six years and older. The cost is $6 ($5 for Lake County residents) per person. Registration and pre-payment are required.

Lakewood Forest Preserve is located on Route 176, just west of Fairfield Road near Wauconda. For more information or to register for "BATS" and "Going Batty", call the Lake County Forest Preserves at 847-968-3321 or visit them online at www.LCFPD.org.

Lake County to host Beauty & Bridal Showplace

Bringing everything together for your big day

Getting Married? Before selecting your banquet hall, DJ or band, florist or photographer plan to attend Lake County's Beauty & Bridal Showcase, on Sunday, August 3 from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza in Mundelein. The show is FREE and offers the chance to win fabulous prizes to take home that day.

Brides-to-Be can plan to see almost every product or service necessary to create their dream wedding and honeymoon. It's difficult to plan a wedding over the phone and during the show not only will the bride talk to the different vendors but she will also be able to touch, taste, smell and feel her way throughout, gaining valuable information to help her plan the perfect wedding day. Many vendors also offer show specials only available to those attending the show. It's estimated the average wedding costs over $19,000, so taking advantage of show specials makes perfect sense.

One highlight to the day will be a fashion show by Kimberly's Fashions of Lakemoor to take place at 2 p.m. and organized by Fun Times DJ. Here's an opportunity to check out today's hottest fashions for the entire wedding party.

For more information call 847-363-4090.

WHOLESALE CARPET DESIGNS

Life's little secrets

the U.S. During the day he drives a taxi and at night he works at the front desk of the upscale Baltic Hotel. Senay (Audrey Tautou of "Amelie"), a Muslim who recently emigrated from Turkey is 22 years old and still a virgin. She works the day shift as a chambermaid at the Baltic. Okwe sleeps on the sofa at Senay's apartment when she's on the clock. He usually fixes dinner before he goes to work at the hotel; other than the meal the two of them have little to say to one another. Senay wants to go live with a friend in New York City but Okwe has some problems that a foreign destination will not so easily solve.

Okwe reminds one of a young Nelson Mandela and is a man with high moral principles. He is in political trouble because he took a moral stand in Nigeria but when he learns of a passport racket based at the hotel, he considers becoming a thief who also performs illegal medical operations. The supervisor at the hotel is (appropriately) named Sneaky (Sergi Lopez of "Jet Lag" and "With a Friend Like Harry") who makes his good fortunes (literally) with cheap labor at the hotel; employing illegal immigrants who need either jobs, passports or both.

Okwe begins his slippery slide to moral decline with stealing drugs at a hospital while pretending to be a janitor. His intentions are good; the drugs are for men at his cab company who have contracted VD.

Senay is not allowed to work for six months or sublet her apartment, according to immigration rules. This sounds like the proverbial catch 22; she needs the money so she works at the hotel and collects rent from Okwe. Neighbors report that a man is coming and going on a regular basis, easy to note because of the difference in his skin color. The Immigration Enforcement Department (IED) catches up with Senay and forces her to quit her job at the hotel, only to find work in a sweat shop run by an Asian merchant. After being on the job only two days, the IED has tracked her to the sewing factory and the owner (Kriss Dosanjh) seizes this opportunity to convince Senay to participate in "Clinton-esque" sex.

In the best caper films, non-heroic people win the day and you are happy for them. The best thrillers take you by surprise with the development of events and if that were less predictable here the film would have an erotically hard edge. That emotionally charged edge exists in the soon to be released "The Magdalene Sisters" that opens on August 15, and will be on both our short lists as best film of the year.

Compensation here is that the film is entertaining, the relationship between a black man and a white woman is fresh, and those of us that might feel less than privileged in the United States get a wake-up call as to how good we have it, when all things are considered. When Haitians risk their lives focuses on those who prey on others who are desperately looking for a passport to get them through customs. The startling reality is that these people, the victims and the predators, will do literally anything, and the drama of the film takes the air of a "mockumentary."

Foreshadowing is fun, when you know something other than the agreed to plan is going to occur and you figure it out shortly before all the characters. Here, bad things happen to good people, yet by the time the movie is over, some of the bad guys have gotten their due and Okwe and Senay are hopefully headed for a better future. "Dirty Pretty Things" gets down and nasty without dragging you in the mud.

Mediterranean cookery made easy

In "The Essential Mediterranean: How Regional Cooks Transform Key Ingredients into the World's Favorite Cuisines," (HarperCollins 2003), Nancy Harmon Jenkins (she also wrote "The Mediterranean Diet Cookbook") continues her culinary exploration of the region.

It's a revelatory journey, as Jenkins comes to an understanding of the ties between food and culture in the Mediterranean. Chapter by chapter, she conducts readers on a cook's tour: from salt to olives and couscous to "the oldest legumes" (chickpeas, lentils and fava beans).

COOKING by the BOOK

Tom Witom

In "The Family Pig," she shares a wonderful Basque dish, Oven-Baked Rice, with Tomatoes, Peppers and Pork."

Oven-Baked Rice, with Tomatoes, Peppers and Pork

2 lbs. boneless lean pork, cut into stewing pieces

2 Tbl. pure pork lard or extra-virgin olive oil, plus a little more to oil the top of the casserole

2 medium yellow onions, coarsely chopped

1 Tbl. ground red Middle Eastern pepper (Aleppo pepper, Turkish pepper)

Pat the meat dry with paper towels. In a heavy casserole, one that can go in the oven later, brown the meat in lard or oil over medium heat, turning to make sure the meat is well browned on all sides. Add the onion and continue cooking, stirring frequently, until the onion begins to brown, about 15 minutes.

Away from the heat, stir in the ground pepper along with enough water to cover all the pieces of meat. Cover and simmer gently until the meat is tender, about 1 hour. While the meat cooks, cut up the fresh peppers, discarding the seeds, tops and inner membranes. Chop the peppers very coarsely, in large pieces.

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. When the meat is tender, stir in the peppers,

Water

2 fresh sweet red peppers

1 1/2 cups long-grain rice

3 to 4 oz. chorizo sausage, coarsely chopped

4 medium firm, ripe tomatoes, peeled, seeded and sliced

1/4 cup minced fresh flat-leaf parsley

rice and chorizo, adding boiling water if the liquid in the pan has boiled away (there should always be enough liquid to cover the pieces of meat). Cover and cook for about 10 minutes on top of the stove over medium heat, again adding a little boiling water as necessary. Cover the rice with slices of tomato, dribble a few spoonfuls of olive oil over the top and transfer the casserole, uncovered, to the oven. Let bake for 30 minutes. (Test to make sure the rice has absorbed sufficient water.)

When done, the rice will be tender and most of the liquid will have been absorbed. Remove from the oven, sprinkle with parsley and let sit, covered, for 10 minutes before serving.

Quarantine lifted

Antioch—Little matter that the Illinois Department of Agriculture wouldn't name the pet shop under quarantine because of the monkeypox virus as the quarantine has been lifted.

Jeff Squibb, a spokesman for the department, said that a six-week quarantine had been placed on pet stores across the state, including the Antioch location, that were known to have exotic pets like prairie dogs.

Youth to be tried as adult in shooting

Gurnee—A 16-year-old North Chicago boy will be tried as an adult in the case in which he is accused of shooting another boy outside of a Gurnee church in March.

Pablo Moreno is charged with attempted murder and armed violence after being accused of shooting another 16-year-old boy outside of a girl's 15th birthday party at Living Well United Methodist Church on March 29.

Recapture funds debate heats up again

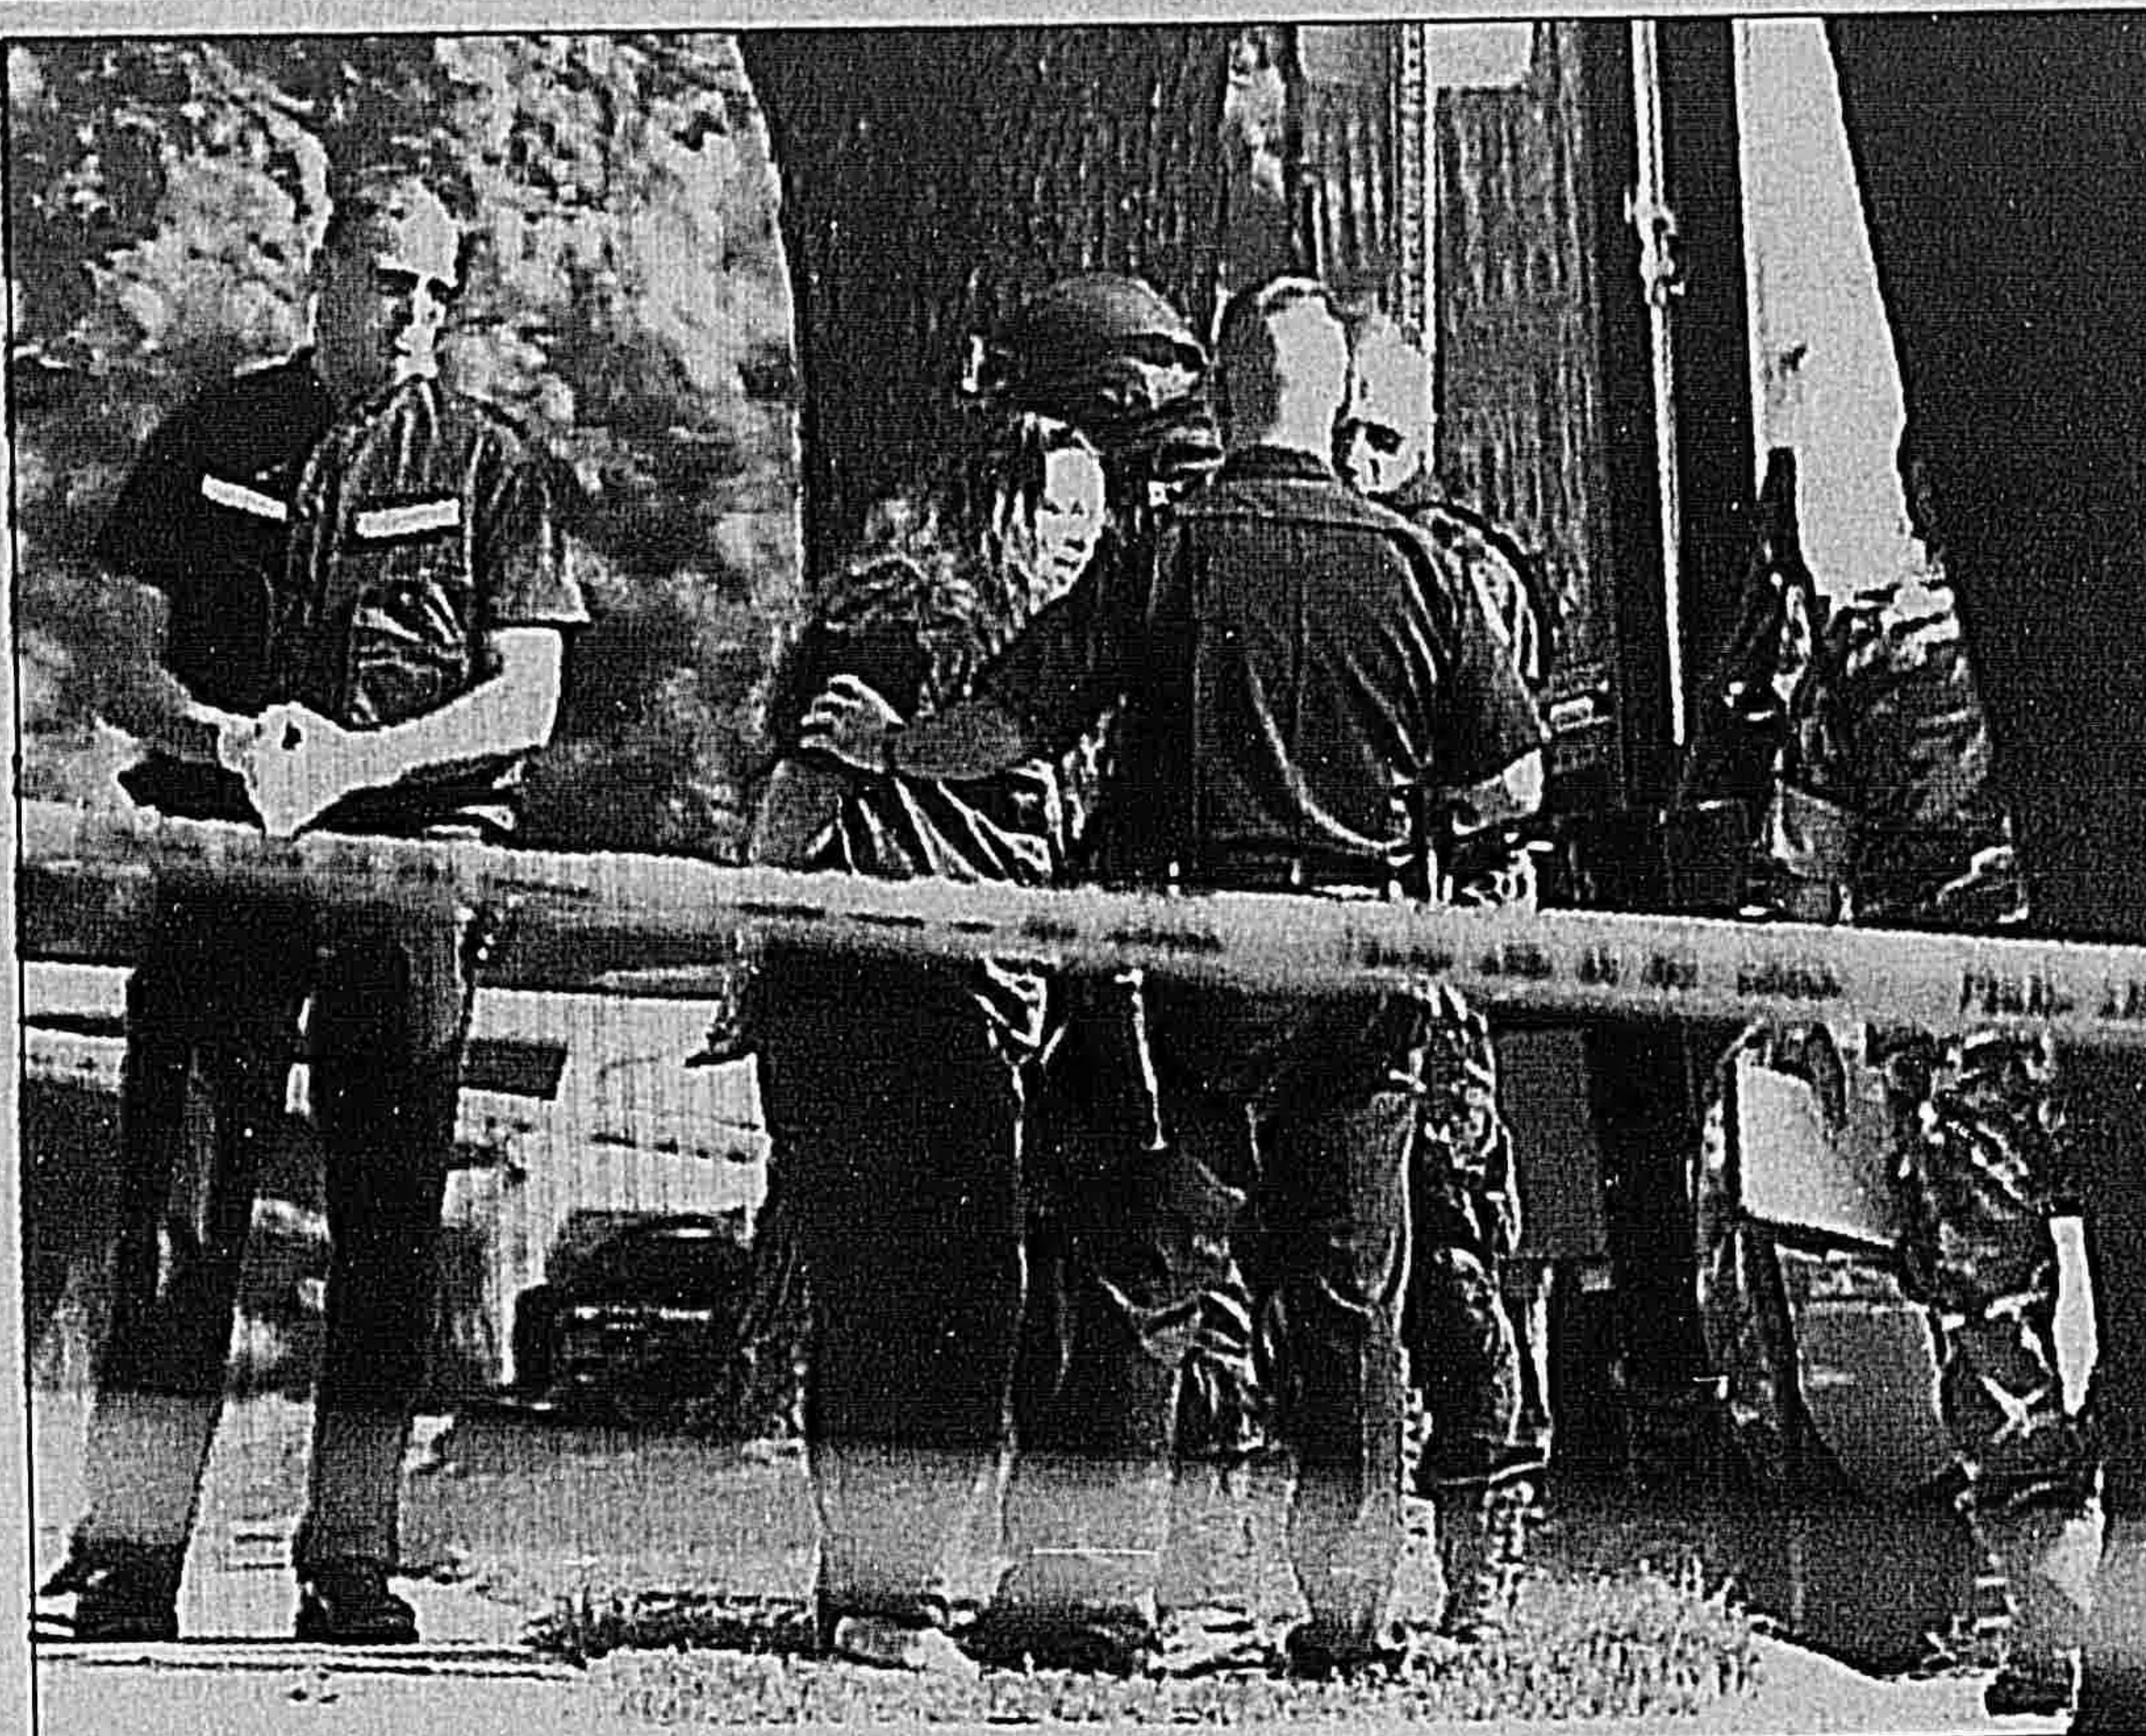

Wauconda—Two business owners are threatening to take the village officials to court over what they see as funds that the village owes them for installing public works improvements.

Fred Holtgren of Hydra Corp., and Dale Berger of Berger Excavation constructed a lift station near Route 12 and Bonner Road, in 1989. They say the village owes them $194,000 through promises from former village officials and ex-mayor Jim Keagle.

Man faces extradition for child battery

Lindenhurst—A former Lindenhurst resident is jailed in Kenosha, Wis., while he fights extradition to Illinois. David M. Demro, 42, is being held on a $300,000 Lake County warrant for two counts of aggravated battery to a child and one count of domestic battery.

The battery charges stem from an incident in October, when his 2-month-old daughter suffered second degree burns over 10 percent of her body. Demro claimed the burns resulted from exposure to a space heater.

Above—Maureen Murray, a resident of 552 Bonniebrook Avenue in Mundelein, is arrested by police after an alleged domestic dispute at their home Wednesday. Police were called to the scene after a neighbor reported a man and woman arguing outside the house at around 5 a.m. on July 30. A five-hour standoff ensued after the man allegedly threatened to burn down the house. Below—Officers leave the scene of the standoff on Bonniebrook Avenue.—Photos by Sandy Bressner Police surrounded the 500 block of Bonniebrook Lane in Mundelein on Wednesday morning after a domestic dispute left one man wounded and his wife in jail.

Shortly before 5 a.m., Mundelein police officers investigated an anonymous complaint by a neighbor about a couple arguing at their home at 552 Bonniebrook Lane.

Police reportedly heard the suspect Allen Murray, 40, yell out of the house, "I am going to burn this house down and I have a rifle." After allegedly making those threats, officers said they heard his wife, Maureen Murray, 32, say, "get out" and their small child say, "daddy, no, no."

At approximately 5:30 a.m., the Northern Illinois Police Alarm System (NIPAS), the Emergency Services Team (EST) and 50 area police departments assisted the Mundelein police to bring the incident to a peaceful resolution. Officers in Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) gear, a K-9 unit and an ambulance also surrounded the home before the standoff was over.

Officers evacuated about 12 surrounding families from their homes in order to ensure their safety.

Less than an hour later, Allen walked out of the house, police said, and refused to listen to their orders. He was taken into custody with the assistance of slow-speed impact munitions in the leg, police said.

Allen was taken to Condell Hospital, but refused medical treatment.

Maureen exited the house shortly after the man, and began to fight with the arresting officers, police said.

Officers said they made several attempts to contact

Vista, Provena: GSI not a 'credible' bidder

Receivables firm's 'bid' for St. Therese is not seriously considered

By BRENDA BALIN-BEITSCHER
Staff Reporter

Disputing reports in the Waukegan News-Sun, Vista Health CEO Timothy Harrington stated there have been no "credible" bids from any source for the purchase of Provena St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan. His statement was in response to the Waukegan newspaper's accounts of bids received from GSI Securitization Inc. of Princeton, New Jersey.

"We never considered GSI a credible buyer," Harrington said. "They have no experience as health care providers. It would be irresponsible to the community to consider them."

GSI Securitization is in the business of purchasing accounts receivables from medical providers such as hospitals, medical clinics and doctor groups who receive immediate payment for their services, while GSI processes and collects the money due.

According to Harrington, GSI has never been a health care provider nor been directly involved in running hospitals.

Furthermore, Harrington said, there was never any intention on Vista's part to sell the St. Therese property to be used as a hospital.

"As we have stated before, it is not feasible to have two hospitals three-and-a-half miles apart," he said.

He said GSI had suggested using the hospital as a cardiac or orthope-

Fair attendance rises, wraps up on a high note

A large crowd filled the temporary bleachers and the surrounding area at the Lake County Sheriff's Department's stage.

There was a good reason for the gathering. For more than 20 years, Alex Rothacker and the Sheriff's Department K-9 unit have been entertaining fairgoers.

"We change the scenarios for each show. We do 16 shows," Rothacker said.

Rothacker said the Lake County Fair has been part of his summer since TOPS dog training first made a debut in 1979. It now contracts with more than 50 law enforcement agencies. "We could get bigger, but then we would lose our quality."

Rothacker said, "Granger" and his handlers were the stars of the show this Sunday, capping off a week that saw almost 200,000 people attend the 75th Lake County Fair.

Rothacker and the handlers demonstrated how Granger is rewarded with toys and is loyal only to his trainer. He will react if he thinks the trainer is in danger, the crowd is told.

"It's a lot of fun, and he pushes us to push the dogs," said trainer Heather Aldridge.

Fair numbers were up. "We had 190,000 and that is 10,000 more than last year," said Fair Board President Bill Obenauf. "We had 149,000 going into Sunday, but Sunday we had

New group has a United front

Lake County United confronts countywide issues

By CHRISTY BLANDFORD
Lakeland Correspondent

Three years ago, Ginny Mulligan started an effort to crumble the walls of diversity throughout the county so all residents could join together to better the area.

And this year, her plan came into fruition.

As one of the eight founders of Lake County United, Mulligan has lofty goals—curing the social ills of the county.

"My vision is just seeing a diverse group of religious representatives and cultural representatives and whatever other diversities there are in Lake County, having conversations about what we're worried about, what our families are up against, what our big concern are," she said. "People across the diversiacross the county, formed in April at meeting that brought out more than 2,000 concerned county residents.

More than 60 organizations fused together to comprise one powerhouse group to delve into solving some local issues like soaring poverty rates, stifling traffic congestion, immigration and a lack of affordable housing.

Organizational leaders conducted more than 50 small group meetings in villages throughout the county earlier this year in order to discover what issues county residents thought needed to be addressed.

Three months after forming, committees have researched the first three items on their agenda: improving the quality of education, healthcare and addressing soaring

Senate candidate making rounds in area

By JEFF ZACHARY
Staff Reporter

"I think I have made my position clear," said James Oberweis, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate. "I've been pro-life all my life and I believe in the sanctity of life."

But to say that Oberweis is just pro-life is a huge understatement.

He is also pro-education, pro-agriculture, pro-American business and in favor of creating a lot of jobs.

It was just moments before campaigning at the Lake County Fair, that Oberweis talked to reporters and supporters at the Country Squire Restaurant in Grayslake.

"I think I'm the one candidate, who has the experience of creating jobs," said Oberweis, as he explained why people should vote for him. "I built a stock brokerage firm from one employee to 400 in the last 10 years and I've built Oberweis Dairy from 50 employees to over 1,000 employees in the same time period," he added.

Oberweis said that he doesn't think any of his opponents has that kind of experience in creating jobs.

He also said he understood what went on at Enron and promised to try and make sure that something like that doesn't happen again.

"I pledge to do everything I can to clean-up corruption both on a national and state level."

"I am a former teacher and I understand the importance of education. I also understand something about agriculture from my experience with the dairy. And I believe that I'm the only candidate that has this kind of background."

Crane brings millions for local defense spending

U.S. Rep. Phil Crane (R-Wauconda) secured an additional $63 million in defense funding for five local defense programs manufactured and developed in Rolling Meadows and Barrington. The funding was included in the Department of Defense Appropriations bill (H.R. 2658),

He was also successful in securing an additional $16 million for three programs developed at Recon/Optical based in Barrington. These programs include: The CROWS (Common Remotely Operated Weapons Station) program, which allows for remote operation of machine guns.

'Funding these programs supports 2,000 local jobs and provides our military personnel with the best equipment and resources they need to prepare them for ongoing missions and those in the future.'

Phil Crane
U.S. Congressman

approved by a 399-19 vote.

"Funding these programs supports 2,000 local jobs and provides our military personnel with the best equipment and resources they need to prepare them for ongoing missions and those in the future," Crane said.

Crane spearheaded an effort to secure an additional $47 million above President Bush's budget request for programs developed at Northrop Grumman's Defense Systems in Rolling Meadows. The LITENING II targeting system, most recently used in Operation Iraqi Freedom, will receive an additional $37 million to help manufacture a "multi-sensor pod" that provides precision strike capability for the U.S. Marine Corps AV-8B Harrier squadrons. The ALQ-135 radar jammer, which helps Air Force F-15E fighters deflect missiles shot at a plane will receive an additional $10 million. The long range and precision attack capability of the F-15E makes it an especially valuable asset to our defense program.

Two programs developed for the U.S. Navy's Shared Reconnaissance Pod (SHARP) program also received funding for the development of zoom lens and sensor technology: the Advanced Sensor Initiative and the F/A-18 E/F Tactical Manned Reconnaissance System.

Crane to host town hall meeting

Congressman Phil Crane (R-Wauconda) will hold a town hall meeting with constituents to discuss recent action in Congress to help strengthen the economy, fortify national security, provide a Medicare prescription drug benefit for seniors, and expand new foreign markets for American goods and services.

The event will be held on Thursday, Aug. 7, at 7 p.m. at Round Lake Beach Village Hall, 1937 North Municipal Way, Round Lake Beach.

Back to School season involves the whole town

As anxious moms and pops and their fidgety offspring get ready for the trudge back to school, it's worth mentioning that the start of another school term involves more than families with children to be educated. Back to School time, in fact, involves just about everyone. Have you ever given thought to that?

Besides watching out for school buses on the highway and observing 20 m.p.h. school zone limits, the community as a whole needs to be engaged in providing leadership, setting standards, monitoring progress and, of course, funding the educational process through the payment of real estate taxes.

Too often, in our opinion, adults not directly involved in raising children, think about the education process only at tax paying time. That tends to be a negative experience. Or they don't think about the educational process at all. That's a shame.

In many ways, school officials are crying out for citizen participation in what goes on at the school house. Attending the games, the plays and the concerts is a form of school support. More directly, there's volunteerism that needs invigorating. Teachers aides. Room parents. Serving on the booster clubs. In the modern world, there's a price tag on everything, it seems. And that's not good, either. Local business has a direct stake in schooling by providing business education, part-time jobs and career education. When budgets are tight (when aren't they?) these areas seem to suffer first. Sadly, this is short-sighted.

To the detriment of just about everyone in the community, in our opinion, is public disinterest in the business and activities of members of the board of education and hired staff. An example of what we're talking about is the current situation of officials of Gavin School, a district of modest homes in west Lake County, were blindsided by revelations that a previous board and a former superintendent approved a risky end-loaded bonding program and failed to comply with Life Safety Code requirements that resulted in closing a school. Could the problems have been avoided with closer public scrutiny? Possibly.

Granted, citizen involvement in BOE business is treacherous. An active watchdog group in Gurnee has been accused of undermining public education with criticism of financial management. A group of citizens in Fremont Elementary (rural Mundelein) became the object of scorn for questioning school spending policies. Jack Martin, vociferous Libertyville citizen and taxation fault-finder, has become a virtual folk hero with disapproval and unflattering comments about the way elected officials and administrators spend the public's money. He is exercising his right as a private citizen by doing exactly what we're talking about: getting involved in the educational process.

There's a big pay-off when citizen involvement brings about positive results. That happened in Antioch a few years ago when a citizens reform group cleaned up a mess in the high school that was causing prospective home buyers to steer clear because of school problems.

A Chicago area clothier hawks its merchandise with the reminder that "an educated consumer is our best customer." That observation apparently helps sell suits, but it holds true also when it comes to making schools better and run smoother. When citizens are educated about the educational process, they are in a better position to evaluate the end product.

Finding a home for old warship

As a long held dream, docking a decommissioned warship in Waukegan Harbor as a permanent museum and Lake County tourist attraction is now closer to reality than ever. There is an opportunity worth pursuing to partner with the U.S.S. Connelly Museum and Memorial based in Texas to relocate the Connelly, a post World War II Spruance class destroyer, to Waukegan. The Connelly now is mothballed in a Philadelphia shipyard.

For more than 20 years, business and civic leaders have speculated how a warship would be a magnet for visitors and a spark for

Mansion diss raises questions

So there, stupid taxpayers. In your face, silly voters. Let your funky old governor's mansion in decrepit down-state Springfield crumble away. I'll tend to the people's business where the power rests. Chicago, of course. Do you think otherwise?

Gov. Rod Blagojevich didn't exactly put it that way, but he might as well have in an amazing pronouncement that his family would not be occupying the stately mansion that has been the real and erstwhile home of Illinois governors since 1855.

Because of the changing nature of state business, governors in recent years have maintained living quarters in Chicago for convenience. But if they didn't actually regard the mansion as home, the modern era governors at least used the mansion as a base and recognized the three story brick structure for official entertaining and ceremonial occasions.

Not Gov. Blago. Pointing to family reasons and not wishing to uproot his daughter's school ties, Gov. Rod said the Blagojevichs will be Chicago residents. Thank you very much. Period. Next question.

OK, give the first term Democrat points for candor. No pretext. Not misleading. But outing his preference for home sets a bad precedent and sends a terrible message to the people of Illinois. Critics already had their doubts about how Gov. Blagojevich feels about the geography south of I-80. Now even his friends and supporters may be moved to wonder or explain whether he gives a hoot about anywhere outside of Chicago.

Can we expect Gov. Blago's next pronouncement on the mansion to be a revenue enhancing plan to turn the place into a bed and breakfast? By the way, when he is in Springfield overnight where does the governor sleep? Motel 6?

- Pretty lame criticism for chiding U.S. Senate candidate Jim Oberweis about the ethics of using his dairy company tv commercials as a sly way to advance political ambitions. In the marketing world, that's called "double coverage." Good business, good politics.

- While it's fresh in mind, how about establishing a permanent memorial to the late Leland "Trig" Watson Jr.? With his wife, Dottie, the Watsons were Mr. and Mrs. Museum at Great Lakes Naval Base and Fort Hill Museum in Mundelein, preserving the past so thousands of persons in the future will enjoy our heritage.

- Democrats criticizing President Bush over a phrase in the State of the Union address is like a neighbor beefing about your family pet leaving do do on the sidewalk. First the neighbor whines about the deed itself. Then he gripes about the way the stuff is cleaned up. Can't win.

New life

Chevy Chase golf course on the Lake-Cook county line is getting new life as the Traditions of Chevy Chase. The course on Milwaukee Ave., built during the hey days of the go-go 20's, is operated by the Wheeling Park District. Chevy Chase is a legend, all right. More accurately, the legendary past is checkered. As the sometimes infamous Bon Aire, the place was a hangout for gangsters with big time gambling as an attraction. For years, Half Day (now Lincolnshire) volunteer firemen held an annual wing ding to raise money for equipment. Renamed Chevy Chase after World War II, the distinctive English-Tudor club house was the scene of high school proms and dancing to the music of big bands. In the early 50's, Chevy Chase featured Hollywood names headlining straw hat theater-in-round. Television's durable detective, Jerry Orbach of Waukegan, made his professional acting debut as an apprentice at Chevy Chase in 1952. Lots of tradition, for sure.

If you're interested in taking flying lessons, Lakeland residents don't have to travel far to reach a qualified flying school, according to the Division of Aeronautics of the Illinois Dept. of Transportation. Closeby schools include Cardinal Aircraft Service, Campbell Airport, Grayslake; Waukegan Region Airport with the Stick and Rudder Flying Club and Waukegan Wings LLC; six separate flight schools are located at Wheeling-Palwaukee Municipal Airport; Galt Airport located in McHenry County, and Schaumburg Region Airport offer flight training for both airplanes and helicopters. Hugh Van Voorst, director of Illinois Aviation, flight training also is offered for sailplanes, rotocraft and balloons.

Lower cost drugs available now

By James M. Sheehan

The rising costs of prescription drugs is currently a hot topic among certain activist groups and governmental agencies, as well it should be. However, how we go about lowering or slowing the cost momentum of medicine should be a major concern for all citizens.

Although many drugs are manufactured here in America, well over 1 million U.S. citizens are now purchasing prescription drugs from Canada and have experienced substantial savings. David Gross of AARP's Public Policy Institute states that "many things contribute to different prices between nations, from currency exchange rates to average income levels. But government price regulation is by far the most important."

PARTY LINES, THE LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS' COLUMN OF POLITICAL OPINION, IS PREPARED FROM STAFF REPORTS.

Business demands overshadow politics

No more politics for Shirley Friedlander—at least for the immediate future. Friedlander is expanding her Gurnee based office suite management firm into the field of real estate management. Friedlander is expanding the business, Office Center of Gurnee, which provides association management, secretarial services and database management.

She unsuccessfully sought a Waukegan seat on the Lake County Board last year.

Island setting

County Treasurer Bob Skidmore has reservations filling up fast for taxi boats to transport fun seekers to his annual Blarney Island fund raiser Wednesday, Aug. 27. Port of Blarney on Grass Lake Road is the point of embarkation. Located in Grass Lake, the island setting makes for a most colorful political gathering. Tickets can be reserved by sending $20 each (two for $35) to Citizens for Skidmore, 1294 Appleby Circle, Mundelein, IL 60060.

Bye, bye principals

Dr. Stanley Fields, new superintendent of Mundelein High School, is courting unpopularity with fellow superintendents by eliminating principal positions. On the other hand, he might have started a new trend that will be popular with taxpayers tired of supporting top-heavy educational bureaucracies. Asst. Supt. Sally Pilcher and John Ahlgren, deputy superintendent, are learning to pick up additional duties to replace a principal and two assistant principals.

Lake area and a first term Republican, precinct committeeman, is looking at his future as a possible candidate for the Lake County board. A self-employed business consultant, Farrell and his wife, a former admissions administrator at Northwestern University, reside in the Valley Lakes region which is in Grant Township. That puts him in the district now represented by County Board Rep. Bonnie Thomson Carter (R-Ingleside).

Signal of the season

For many years, a Sunday morning brunch at Marriott Lincolnshire signaled the beginning of the fall season in south Lake County. The event is sponsored by long-time State Sen. Bill Peterson (R-Long Grove). This year's event is set for 11 a.m., Sept. 21. Tickets at $50 each can be reserved by calling Jan Zobus of the Peterson staff at 847-945-5127.

Ready for duty

Former Round Lake Beach Police Chief Ed Sindles has indicated he's ready to get back in uniform. Continued union contract squabbling reportedly was behind his decision earlier this year to try life on the sidelines.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Limit trails

There seems to be a concerted lobbying effort by some in the Lake County horse community to have the Forest Preserve District reserve a recently acquired 800 acres for the exclusive use of the horse people.

As a horse person myself, I would like to be on record as opposing the idea. The horse facilities in Lake County are more than adequate. The miles of trails are, at present, nicely maintained by the district and I fear that the great expense in establishing and maintaining an 800 acre horse reservation would dilute the funds available for what we presently have.

I believe that the new reservation would get minimal use, being accessible only to that minority of horse owners who own trailers and the ability to haul them. The rest would receive no benefit at all.

dogs, being sure they are up to date on their shots but does it cost that much? I'd be curious to see their account and how much revenue this fee generates. I will buy my permit reluctantly because my poopies are counting on it. But dog owners should understand that they are not necessarily getting a full year's use of the facilities, depending on when they buy their permit. Further, we don't know where all our money is going. I think I'll vote NO next time the forest preserve wants more of my hard earned money. I figure they're getting it with the money I'm paying to bring my dogs to the dog park.

Getting fair prices

Thank you very much for taking the time to meet with Mike Bock, founder of IllinoisHealthAlliance.com and me. I enjoyed the opportunity to get to know you better. Thousands of people in Illinois have already been helped, without a penny of taxpayer funds of bureaucratic red tape.

Drug manufacturers are welcome to sell their product at any price they wish. However, if they charge more to Americans than to residents of other countries, they forfeit the protection of American patent rights. We insist on fair treatment for U.S. patients and pharmacists. You and I know that they are not selling in these other countries at a loss, or else they would discontinue sales.

Efforts like ours to spotlight the staggering price disparity between the U.S. and Canada are already bearing fruit. First, Walgreens has cut the cost they're charging for Tamoxifen in half, i.e. from 10 times what it's sold for in Canada to 5 times. The price is still excessive, but the trend is going in the right direction. Second, the U.S. Senate recently passed legislation that would allow American pharmacies to buy at Canadian prices. Action is now needed in the House. All this will heat up before it gets solved.

Questions Bush foes

I cannot understand some of the people who have been attacking President Bush because of his successful liberation of Iraq.

Do these people think that removing Saddam Hussein from power was bad? Was the former Iraqi dictator, who attacked Iran and Kuwait, and used chemical weapons against the Iranians and his own people, some type of saint? Should we mourn Saddam Hussein's removal from power? Should President Bush apologize and restore Saddam Hussein to power?

Saddam Hussein was a threat to world peace. Saddam Hussein previously demonstrated a willingness and ability to use whatever he could to torture his own people for the sake of loyalty, but that is not loyalty, that is fear. Saddam Hussein was caught repeatedly cheating United Nations weapons inspectors.

War protesters are looking for excuses to oppose the removal of dictator Hussein. It makes no sense.

trol the prices of drugs, whereas Canada has set up certain voluntary guidelines for drug companies to follow. The first guideline is that prices must not exceed the highest Canadian price for existing drugs used to treat the same disease. The second guideline is that "breakthrough" drugs, which are unique and have no competition, must be no higher than the median price in seven other select countries. The third guideline is that over time, prices must not increase more than the rate of inflation.

According to the June issue of the AARP Bulletin, Canada created what is called the Patented Medicine Prices Review Board. This agency is made up of about 40 people and has an annual budget of approximately $3 million dollars. In the 15 years since this process has been in effect, this agency has only taken legal action four times in getting a drug company to lower their prices. In all other cases, the drug companies have voluntarily complied because they know what the guidelines are.

Illinois State Senator Chris Lauzen has taken the lead in trying to bring affordable drugs costs to citizens without the unnecessary burden or costs of an attendant bureaucracy. Lauzen claims that current government proposals could cost Illinois taxpayers $27 million dollars and U.S. taxpayers $400 billion dollars over the next 10 years.

While Lauzen appreciates companies making a profit, he likes profits that are fairly competed for. Lauzen would like to see fair trade practices and treatment for American patients and pharmacists.

In response to these concerns and realities, Lauzen is promoting a web site that can help citizens lower their drug cost now. IllinoisHealthAlliance.com allows access to information about reduced prescription drugs, connections to qualified programs, and a quick method of purchasing deeply discounted drugs for those who uninsured or underinsured. As concerned citizens, we should promote civic strategies that have direct benefits to those who need them without being tied to needless and costly bureaucracies.

revitalization of the Waukegan lakefront. The retired Navy docked ship in Waukegan Harbor always has been one of those ideas with popular support that never get accomplished because of financial hurdles. Cost of towing a big ship from a salt water port through the Great Lakes generally is pegged at $1 million. Then there is the expense of restoration and providing infrastructure to make the ship accessible and safe for visitors.

Waukegan Mayor Richard Hyde and other leaders have been informed Connelly Museum officials are in a position to provide up to $5 million to underwrite relocation and refurbishing of the ship commissioned in 1978 that saw service in the Persian Gulf War. Locally raised funds would be needed to provide a dockside service building and walkway for boarding the ship. Typically, not-for-profit organizations provide management and maintenance with mostly volunteer help. The sponsoring organization could acquire tax-exempt status. Operating funds are provided by nominal charges to visitors.

What's intriguing about the U.S.S. Connelly possibility is that the ship is named for Adm. Richard Connelly, who was born in Waukegan. The Navy officer graduated from Lake Forest Academy and graduated in 1914 from the U.S. Naval Academy. Adm. Connelly held command posts in the Pacific during World War II.

Past expressions of interest indicate that there are more than enough support organizations and veterans groups willing to come forward to join with the City of Waukegan to create the warship museum and memorial. We urge Mayor Hyde to exert the leadership needed to make a beneficial project come to reality.

Permit too high

Dog owners should be warned about policies regarding the Lake County Dog Exercising area and fees charged for use of the facilities. Dog owners wishing to bring their dog or dogs to any of our many forest preserve dog parks must buy a yearly permit.

I had purchased one about eight months ago assuming it was good for a year. (Okay, I admit I didn't read where it said that it is an annual permit good from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31.) I guess I just assumed that if I were paying $57 for my two dogs to go to the parks it would be good for 12 months. Not so. I found that out today when I was stopped in the dog park by a person (not sure if it was a police officer) who said my sticker was not valid anymore.

I voted for the last two increases the forest preserve asked for largely because of the pleasure my dogs and I have visiting the dog parks in the area. I was naive in really understanding the dollar revenue—above and beyond what I am already paying in my taxes—from dog owners paying for permits each year. If I were to calculate it out: The fee, times each person, this would be a nice chunk of additional money for the forest preserve. Further, think of all the people that buy permits in warmer weather. Let's face it, how many people will tolerate weather January through March to go to the dog park? So really it's only good for part of the year for most of us. Or, I could choose to pay $8 each time I go for my two dogs. Now that can also pay off for the forest preserve. Now, let's say you don't pay or though your permit was still good you get a whopping $75 ticket.

I have to say I'm pretty miffed at the fact that the price of the permit is so high. Or dare I ask, should there really be a fee at all? Aren't I already paying for the forest preserve in my hefty Libertyville taxes? Further, I can't imagine what they are doing to warrant charging so much to us. There are not trails lined in red carpets or vendors offering me snacks. There aren't any dog trainers offering pet owners free advice or a beach where lifeguards sit on high chairs making sure no dog drowns.

I do understand that there is probably some paper to be pushed for monitoring the 41,000. The demolition derby, rodeo and tractor pulls were all packed," he said.

Ironically, it is Thursday, not the weekend of Friday and Saturday that is the one of the strongest, second only to Sunday's 41,000. "Sunday would have been better if we had 51,000," Obenauf said, referring to the one-day record.

Meghan Cashman, Miss Grayslake and Miss Lake County Fair Queen, and Junior Miss Lake County Fair Alyssa Knauer of Round Lake Area and Little Miss Lake County Rachel Lester of Libertyville reigned over the five-day fair.

UNITED

housing costs, said Lori Clark, a member of the organization's steering committee.

Clark, a Lake County Center for Independent Living delegate, said organization leaders have begun tackling the issues by researching the problem and possible solutions, and plan to implement their problem-solving strategies this fall or winter.

Leaders plan to group together and talk to officials who can remedy "deep-rooted" problem situations as a strategy for solving the issues, Clark said.

"We're not going to go out and build housing," she said. "We're going to look at the community and help them understand the importance of that through going to meetings, and getting public officials to agree to build more affordable housing."

The organization is a platform for community members to have a voice in local government, Clark said.

Bill Werner of the Mundelein area showed off Dexter cattle in one of the dairy building. "Our first year here was two years ago. People are fascinated about them because of their size," he said.

"It's about education about agriculture," said Jody Moy, Miss Zion, 1996, in the ag barn. Youngsters could make color drawings of animals, be entertained by Moo Mania, and adults could see photos of Lake County farms, many in Fremont Township.

"It's all hands-on for the kids. It helps the youngsters learn what agriculture is all about," said volunteer Joanna Maze of Antioch.

Dozens of award-winning 4-H projects were on display at the University of Illinois Extension building almost to the close of the fair. Nancy Johansen of U of I has been involved in the Lake County Fair 4-H area for 13 years. "There has been an overwhelming interest," she said.

"What I've learned in all of this is that my voice, or 10 people with disabilities' voices, are not going to be loud enough," she said. "Numbers and voices count."

Collectively, the organization can be effective, said Tom Lenz, Lake County United chief organizer.

"The key idea here is find and link leaders across the county and give them collectively both the skills and networks to be effective in working on these issues," he said. "By working collectively you can tackle issues at a higher level."

Reverend Bob Davis, a pastor at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Libertyville, became involved with the organization three years ago, like Mulligan, when the idea first surfaced. He said working individually with residents could also help the group overcome the county's systemic issues.

"We're working for the common good," Davis said. "Broad-based organizing efforts start with one-on-one relationships. The idea has caught on."

Ideas of starting the organization had been stirring since 2001, but culminated in the group's founding this April with more than 60 local organizations signing on. An eight-person "sponsoring committee" of local religious and secular officials raised $400,000 to fund the effort to organize the group.

Mulligan, who is also a delegate for St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Libertyville, said forming a united effort was logical.

"It made a lot of sense to me," Mulligan said. "I've been involved in other charitable efforts, but nothing that was organized in this way with big organizational bodies. I just was intrigued by this type of broad-faced organizing."

dic facility, a proposal that the Vista board did not consider in the "best interests" of the community.

If Vista Health is not interested, St. Therese's nominal owner, Provena, may be even less interested.

According to Clint Giese, spokesperson for Provena, senior executives of the Mokena-based health care provider met in March with GSI. At that time, they were presented with a letter expressing interest in purchasing St. Therese Hospital.

"It was not viewed as a purchase offer or even a serious bid," Giese said. He explained that Provena turned GSI away on two counts.

"First, with our joint agreement with Vista, we can't unilaterally sell the hospital," he said. "Second, we are in the process of divesting ourselves of St. Therese."

As cited in a previous Lakeland report, Provena has indicated it does not believe two full-service hospitals are financially viable in Waukegan, and has no interest in maintaining St. Therese.

Provena CEO William Foley directed GSI to Vista Health, which controls St. Therese.

GSI Securitization CEO Gunther Slaton tells a radically different story.

"We put in a bid, subject to due diligence," he said. "They (Provena) said they were interested, but never replied to my requests for data such as profit and loss statements."

Slaton provided Lakeland Media with a copy of a memo dated March 17, in which he offers to place in escrow a certain amount (deleted from the copy), for a period of two weeks, pending due diligence.

He denied Provena officials ever informed him that they were neither interested nor in a position to sell St. Therese. He characterized his contact with Provena as "a bid in good faith."

When asked about GSI's history of managing hospitals, he said the company had run hospitals "many times," but vehemently refused to continue the interview when asked to name the hospitals.

GSI was acquired in May by Klinair Environmental Technologies Limited. In the press release announcing the acquisition, GSI is described as a company that purchases accounts receivables.

It says, "GSI's entire focus is implementing a bankruptcy-remote health care receivables purchasing program and the issuance of investment related securities." The description makes no mention of hospital acquisition or management.

Tower nixed from new hospital design

A controversial 10-story tower may have been eliminated from the design for the proposed 120-bed Vista hospital in Lindenhurst. Although the design process has not yet been completed, indications are that Vista intends to approve a plan without the tower.

The tower, originally conceived as a local "beacon" with a helipad on its roof, may be eliminated from the plan because of logistics, not aesthetics, according to Tim Harrington, Vista Health CEO.

"The tower is gone (from the design), not because of aesthetics," he said. "It turned out to be not as functional as it needed to be. The architect tried to meld aesthetics with functionality."

Vista has yet to complete the Certificate of Need process, required before construction can begin. The hospital, originally expected to open in 2005, will most likely not be completed before 2006.—Brenda Balin-Beitscher

Suburban companies lace up for 2003 Heart Walk

Hundreds of heart disease and stroke survivors will don red baseball caps that read, "Fighting Back" to raise funds for the American Heart Association. The Northwest Suburban American Heart Walk take place on Sunday, Sept. 14, at the Ned Brown Meadow of Busse Woods in Rolling Meadows.

"Everyone knows someone affected by heart disease or stroke. It's the leading cause of death among women and men in the U.S. and the second leading cause of death (behind accidents) to our children," said Rick Plotz, Vice-president of human resources for Experian, the presenting sponsor of the 2003 Metro Chicago American Heart Walks. "Heart disease shows no bias or prejudice. It does not care about your age, race, religion or national origin. If ever there was a time, if ever there was a reason, now is the time to fight heart disease."

Survivors with family, friends and co-workers, will be among the expected 5,000 other local residents who are walking. With this year's theme setting the tone, "Participate. Raise Funds. Save Lives," walkers will be stepping out to fight against heart disease and stroke at the American Heart Walk by raising more than $760,000.

Funds raised from the more than 600 American Heart Walk events held across the U.S. will support heart and stroke research as well as public and professional education programs. Research funded by the American Heart Association has yielded important discoveries such as CPR, life-extending drugs, pacemakers, bypass surgery and surgical techniques to repair heart defects. Now in its eleventh year, the American Heart Walk, a national American Heart Association event, has raised more than $326 million.

Participants of all ages will join in the 3.5-mile walk. Many area businesses, including ADP, Advocate Good Shepherd Hospital, Advocate Lutheran General Hospital, Alexian Brothers Medical Center, Experian, GE Medical Systems, Northwest Community Healthcare, SBC, St. Alexius Medical Center and Zurich North America are promoting employee health and wellness, as well as camaraderie, by organizing company-walking teams. Company teams are the backbone to the fundraising success of the American Heart Walk.

Charity scramble is on tap

The Center for Enriched Living is seeking golfers, corporate sponsors, and volunteers to take part in their annual Golf Scramble. This event will take place on Thursday, Sept. 4 at the White Deer Golf Club in Vernon Hills. Individual golfer cost is $225, which includes green and golf cart fees, lunch, beer cart, open bar, hors d'oeuvres and cocktails after golfing, and a golfer goodie bag. In addition, each golfer is eligible to win fantastic prizes at selected holes, door prizes, raffles and more. Registration and lunch begins at 11 a.m., with the awards ceremony starting at 5:30 p.m.

All proceeds from the scramble will benefit the center and its many worthwhile programs for members with developmental disabilities. For further information call 847-948-7001.

Come & Enjoy the Fun!

HOROSCOPE

Aries – March 21/April 20

Don't be too aggressive when meeting someone for the first time early in the week, Aries. This person is rather shy and may be uncomfortable. You definitely don't want this, because he or she can offer you a potentially lucrative deal. Try to control yourself. Virgo plays a role.

Taurus – April 21/May 21

While you really just want to stay home this week, that's not an option for you, Taurus. Your social calendar is booked. Go out, and try to have a good time. The outings actually will be more fun than you expect. That special someone needs your advice about a business matter. Be honest with him or her.

Gemini – May 22/June 21

Don't let an acquaintance sway your opinion about a personal matter. Stand your ground. You know how you feel and why; this person shouldn't tell you otherwise. A loved one gets into trouble and needs your help. Do what you can for him or her. Your efforts will be appreciated. Capricorn plays an important role.

Cancer – June 22/July 22

Keep your feelings to yourself when it comes to work. Don't let the higher-ups know how upset you are that they didn't consult you on a business matter. Showing your anger only will make you look bad. A friend of a friend invites you out. Say yes, because it's sure to be a good time.

Leo – July 23/August 23

Don't desert a friend in need early in the week, Leo, even if the two of you haven't seen each other in a while. He or she needs your help. Be there for him or her, and try to do what you can. A loved one has a surprise for you. Enjoy it, because you certainly deserve it. Gemini plays a key role.

Virgo – Aug. 24/Sept. 22

Don't be too critical of yourself when you make a mistake at work. It was a minor error, and it didn't cause any serious problems. Don't beat yourself up over it. While out with friends, you meet an interesting person. Even though you're attracted to him or her, don't get involved. This person isn't telling you everything there is to know.

Libra – Sept. 23/Oct. 23

While you hate to be rude, that's the only way you get an acquaintance to leave you alone this week, Libra. Don't feel guilty about it, because he or she doesn't take offense at it. A loved one needs a shoulder to cry on. Be there for him or her.

Scorpio – Oct. 24/Nov. 22

You have an important decision to make this week, Scorpio. Don't just think about what is best for you; consider what your decision will mean to everyone involved. Weigh your choices carefully, because a lot of people will be affected by this. Turn to loved ones for advice if you need it.

Sagittarius – Nov. 23/Dec. 21

Control your temper when you have a run-in with an acquaintance this week. Getting upset only will make you look bad. Stand your ground, but do it calmly. Stay in control. A good friend needs your help with a financial problem. Do what you can for him or her.

Capricorn – Dec. 22/Jan. 20

Don't let a minor setback keep you from going after what you really want. Stay focused and determined. If you don't get distracted, you're sure to reach your goal. Loved ones turn to you for advice about a family matter. Try not to get involved in the situation. If you do, you'll be in over your head. Libra plays a key role.

Aquarius – Jan. 21/Feb. 18

Everyone seems to be asking you for something this week, Aquarius. While you don't like it, there's really nothing that you can do about it. Just try to help as many people as you can. Your efforts will be appreciated. Things will calm down by the end of the week, giving you plenty of time to relax and enjoy yourself.

Pisces – Feb. 19/March 20

While you're normally laid-back, you become very intense this week. You see something that you want, and you go after it. Don't feel guilty. There's nothing wrong with this. Stay focused, and you're sure to get it.

Wilmot Speedway 'Salute to the Troops Night' a success

Two three-peats and two new winners helped Local Motion Entertainment's Wilmot Speedway "Salute to the Troops Night" at the one-third mile clay oval.

Point leader Rick Kelsey of West Allis captured his third 20-lap winged outlaw sprint car feature of the season, establishing a track record of 5:05.81 for the distance.

Defending 2002 Champion Scott Kuxhouse of Antioch came from 10th starting spot to win his third 20-lap IMCA modified main of the year.

Gary Foster of Kenosha scored his first 15-lap hobby stock feature victory of the season in the record establishing non-stop main time of 5:28.37.

Bob Koch of McHenry also became the fourth different Basic International Car (BIC) feature winner in as many weeks for the new 4-cylinder compact stock car division as he scored the record setting 12-lap feature win in a time of 4:32.81.

"The track was really tacky and the car stuck wherever I wanted to put it," said Kelsey following the sprint win. "We had some bad luck the last couple weeks, breaking something while running up front. It was nice to see things turn around out way."

"I especially want to thank the families of those in the armed services serving overseas. During the autograph session, I met a child whose family member was deployed over there (Iraq) on Mothers' Day this year and won't be back until next year. This win is for those families with loved ones away from home and for all of the fans who come out and support racing here at Wilmot."

First-year sprint car warrior and former mini-sprint competitor Patrick Haynes took the initial lead at the drop of the green flag. Kelsey worked into contention, challenging Haynes several times as the two battled wing-to-wing.

On lap five, Kelsey overtook top spot working to the inside off turn two down the backstretch. Kelsey flew to the record setting victory putting lapped traffic and race track between he and Haynes. In the closing laps, Haynes had his hands full hanging onto second as he popped a wheelie coming for the checkered flag to hold off the late charge of third place finisher John Edquist as the two crossed the stripe wing to wing. Bill Wirth finished fourth, while Doug Dean was fifth. Dean and Kelsey scored heat race wins.

"The track was a lot tackier this week and had a lot more bite," said Kuxhouse following his IMCA modified win. "I hope it was half as much fun for the fans to watch as it was for me to drive. Winning on such a special night means a lot, too. I had my family here, several of my sponsors and it's always special to win in front of these great fans."

Chuck Ostergaard of Wildwood took the initial lead. The first of just two cautions that slowed the race pace came on lap five for a stalled car. Two laps later, a three-wide battle for the lead roared into turn one with Kuxhouse on the top side of the new banking, Ostergaard in the middle and Rob Olson on the bottom.

Kuxhouse powered out of turn two in front, holding the top spot through the second and final caution on lap 16 when two cars tangled while attempting to avoid Kuxhouse, who was lapping them. The final four laps went green with Kuxhouse holding off Ostergaard for the win. Olson, who started eighth, ended up third. Nick Simons improved from 13th starting spot to finish fourth. Point leader Ed Devall came from 11th to wind up fifth.

Ostergaard won the first heat race, dedicating the win to his brother-in-law William Threlkeld, who passed away from a heart attack earlier in the week at age 44. Tommy McKinney, Scott Shultis and Kuxhouse also won heat races. Mike Sullivan captured a hotly contested "B" main.

Although Foster led from honorary starter FR. Leah Ingram, a member of the U.S. Navy stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, of Tennessee's green flag to her checkered, there was stiff competition for spots behind him.

Foster, who earlier won the heat race, was followed by a four and sometimes five-way battle for second. Point leader William Groleau kept his El Camino ahead of the pack for runner-up to take the spot by less than one car length. Tony Schlei worked his way up from last starting spot in the field ending up third by inches. Ken Netzel was a close fourth. Sixteen-year-old Todd Hensley came across fifth, as the top five spots were less than half a straightaway apart at the finish.

In the first of regularly scheduled tricycle races, five-year-old Aaron Boothe of Beach Park scored the overall win over 6-year-old Nicholas Orth of Racine. "That was fun," said Boothe. "We're both winners," added Orth in the truest statement of what racing is all about. Mike's Bikes of Gurnee provided the tricycles. Plans are to have weekly races open to youngsters up to eight-years-old that have joined the free 'Kids & Racers for Victory! Club' at the speedway.

Following an autograph session by all drivers, a special pre-race ceremony was held in honor of all veterans, past and present, both living and deceased. The drivers lined the grandstand side of the front straightaway, joined by youngsters, veterans and active military personnel in attendance.

Master Bagpiper Doug Stewart of Elkhorn performed taps followed by Amazing Grace. Vocalist Cathy Landgren of Camp Lake sang the National Anthem followed by God Bless America with the crowd joining her in a repeat of the refrain. The Silver Lake Veterans of Foreign Wars Post provided a color guard for the ceremony.

Olson Transportation/Midwest Motorcoach of Gurnee provided a free shuttle bus that transported military personnel and dependents from Great Lakes Naval Training Center to the facility located on the Kenosha County Fairgrounds.

Making its debut was the Jerry's Garage Talk/Jerry's AAA Auto Center pace vehicle with owner/co-host Jerry Boothe and Nick Dowdal manning the truck. Wilmot Speedway hosts 4-H Night on Sat., Aug. 2. All 4-H members with ID cards will be admitted free to the grandstands. On track action will include winged outlaw sprint cars, IMCA modifieds, hobby stocks, BIC 4-cylinder cars plus motorcycle engine powered winged mini-sprints. Children's tricycle races are planned right after the National Anthem Ceremony.

This is the 52nd consecutive year of operation for the facility located on the Kenosha County Fairgrounds. It is the first under new promoters LME. Grandstands open at 5 p.m. each race night with the first race scheduled for 7 p.m. Weekly racing continues through October 11 with the exception of Aug. 16 as there is no racing scheduled this year during the annual Kenosha County Fair Aug. 13-17. For latest information contact the 24-hour race line at 262-862-2446 or the web site at www.wilmotspeedway.com.

rate placement to a left-to-right bending fairway that features a bunker on the left side. A deep and narrow green is surrounded by heavy rough. The hole looks simple. But play it sometime.

Clubhouse amenities: A brand new state-of-the-art clubhouse was officially unveiled this year. In the Sweetbriar Grill, golfers and even non-golfers can enjoy a diverse menu that features anything from sandwiches to the best in fine dining. In the spring and fall, Chef Ted Stay and his staff offer a Friday Night Fish Fry. The view is also breathtaking, looking out over the golf course. An outdoor patio with a vista overlooks the 9th and 18th holes. The new clubhouse also features a full-service pro shop. Players can also practice on an immaculate putting green and driving range. Small men's locker room also available for golfers. Halfway house located after holes 6 and 14. Fees: 18 holes—$69 to walk (Mon.-Tues.); $78 riding. Wed.-Thurs. $72 walking, $86 with electric cart. Weekends, including Friday's—$72 (walking); $88 with cart. After 3 p.m.—$59 (cart optional). Twilight (after 4 p.m.)—$39 walking or $55 riding. For 9 holes—$19 walking; $27 riding. Senior rates available Mon. and Tues. (before 10 a.m.). Junior special (after 4:30 p.m.)—no charge with paying adult.

Comment: "Stonewall Orchard offers a variety of challenging and enjoyable holes with watered and rolling fairways, and bent grass fairways, tees, and greens. Established pine and oak trees and wetlands add to the courses ambience. Renowned architect Arthur Hill, as rated by Golf Magazine, has designed a gem that is playable by all handicap levels"—Bob Malpede

Signature hole: #18 (par 5, 559). A terrific par-5 with a generous fairway but tree-lined on both sides. Most likely a three-shot hole with the approach shot heading straight at the clubhouse to an uphill green, which is fronted by a rock incline to a smaller green. Length definitely adds to the test, where if played from the tips, measures 600 yards.

Clubhouse amenities: Thunderhawk offers a full-service pro shop, restaurant, bar, locker rooms and showers available. Banquet facilities that seat up to 200 people also available. Enjoy a sandwich in the Tall Tails Grille on the back patio, which overlooks the majestic finishing hole. Thunderhawk also offers putting greens, grass and matted driving range, a chipping area, and practice bunker available to players/guests. Lessons also available as are club rentals.

Fees: (May 6 through Sept. 29) Friday-Sunday and holidays—(until 3 p.m.) Lake County residents $78, non-residents $98; Twilight (3-5 p.m.)—Residents $45, non-residents $55; Sunset (after 5 p.m.)—Both residents and non-residents $29. All prices include carts. Discount rates for seniors and juniors are also available. Reservations accepted up to two weeks in advance. Please note prices change after Sept. 30.

Comment: "Another Robert Trent Jones, Jr. gem. Thunderhawk is a championship-designed course built over a 243-acre forest preserve. The course mixes mature oaks, pristine wetlands and native prairie grasses. Fairways generous and wide but accuracy very crucial on many shots. Challenging to all skill levels, with five sets of tees. We have received a four-star rating from 'Golf Digest'."—Bill Ebdon

Don't let it fool you. Carillon North in Grayslake is only nine holes, all par-3's. But when the wind picks up, like on the 108-yard first hole, funny things are bound to happen. The 1st hole is a wedge or 9-iron to a huge, undulating green. If you miss a shot to the left, chances are the 'heather' will jump up and grab you.—Photo by John Phelps

Rating: 69.4

Signature hole: #2 (par 4, 420). The drive is crucial here, as out-of-bounds lines the left side. Also figuring into the equation is a fairway sloping to the right side, which is lined by water. A clump of trees about 250 yards out in the left center of the fairway could hamper the approach shot, which is directed at an undulating green guarded by bunkers on the right side.

Clubhouse amenities: The Cabana Bar and Grille is available for players and guests enjoyment. Heather Ridge also offers two putting greens and a hitting net by the first tee. Club repair and lessons are available. Outings are encouraged and leagues are plentiful.

Fees: $15 weekdays; $18 weekends and holidays (walking). Twilight (after 5 p.m.—walking)—$11.50; weekends—$13.50. Carts are $8 per person at all times. Junior and senior rates also available on weekdays.

The Health Benefits of Sex—Part 2: Wilhelm Reich and Orgonomy

I was surprised to find someone at this paper that remembers reading the headlines about the arrest and sentencing of Dr. Wilhelm Reich to two years in jail.

This was back in 1956, a time when our government was paranoid of anyone who may have had any Communist affiliation and/or posed a threat that could upset the status quo of a post World War II victorious and prosperous nation. In the case of Reich, the FDA wanted him silenced for revealing and putting into practice his scientific research findings. He died in jail shortly afterward, in 1957 at the age of 60, a few months before a possible release from prison on parole if he agreed never to work or write about Orgonomy again.

The crime for which Reich was sentenced was a contempt of court charge that stemmed from his alleged failure to stop selling Orgone energy accumulators—an instrument designed to speed up the natural healing of the body—in what the government decided was a violation of the Federal Pure Food and Drug Act. Dr. Reich was a man who should have been celebrated as a hero, a genius ahead of his time. Like Galileo, who wanted the world to understand that everything did not revolve around the Earth in space, it may take years for his findings to be accepted.

You are no doubt wondering what Orgone energy and Orgonomy mean. For sure, they're not in my computer spell check. Your next question probably is, "What does this have to do with sex?"

During his early years, Reich actually collaborated with Sigmund Freud, and the research is in his first books, "The Function of the Orgasm" (1927) and "Character Analysis" (1933). "Orgonomy, Orgone-orgasm"—you can see the linguistic connection. He believed that in order to be really Everything!

Orgonomy is the science of Orgone created by Dr. Wilhelm Reich who was born in Austria in 1897, lived in Berlin, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Forest Hills, New York, and then in Rangeley, Maine, until his death. Orgone or life energy is described as vital, primal, a non-material element believed to permeate the universe. It's a pre-atomic (mass-free) energy in everything that's alive.

In the human body, energy fields are always interacting with one another. Wilhelm Reich believed these energy fields had a great impact on our health. Dr. Reich's primary theory is that neurosis and sexual impotence is the result of a blockage in the body that inhibits the natural flow of Orgone/life energy. This impasse can usually be attributed to traumatic experiences in life.

According to Reich, the fundamental difference between mentally sick and mentally healthy people-between the neurotic and genital character was to be found in (as he described it) their capacity for orgasmic discharge in a loving embrace. This led him to develop the orgasm formula: tension, charge, discharge, relaxation, which he later characterized as common to all living things—even paramaecium and amoebas.

healthy, it's necessary to eliminate rigidity and pent up energy, and to do this it is necessary to achieve powerful orgasms.

Reich recognized a direct link between mental and physical health and between sexual repression and neurosis. In other words, for those who do not have a healthy sex life with a loving partner, there is a great chance for depression, perversion, neurosis, and psychosis.

Extremely controversial, in addition to being Jewish and a Communist—definitely not a candidate for "European Idol," Reich's ideas at that time inspired much criticism from the scientific and medical communities. The Nazis burned his books and Reich fled Germany. He was even kicked out of the socialist party for his radical ideas about the influence of sexual repression on politics. Perhaps his theories offer at least a partial explanation for Nazi war and hate crimes.

It's difficult to imagine how anybody engrossed in a deep and loving embrace could suddenly push their partner aside and bolt out the door with the explanation that they had to leave to kill somebody.

According to Reich, the fundamental difference between mentally sick and mentally healthy people-between the neurotic and genital character was to be found in (as he described it) their capacity for orgasmic discharge in a loving embrace. This led him to develop the orgasm formula: tension, charge, discharge, relaxation, which he later characterized as common to all living things—even paramaecium and amoebas.

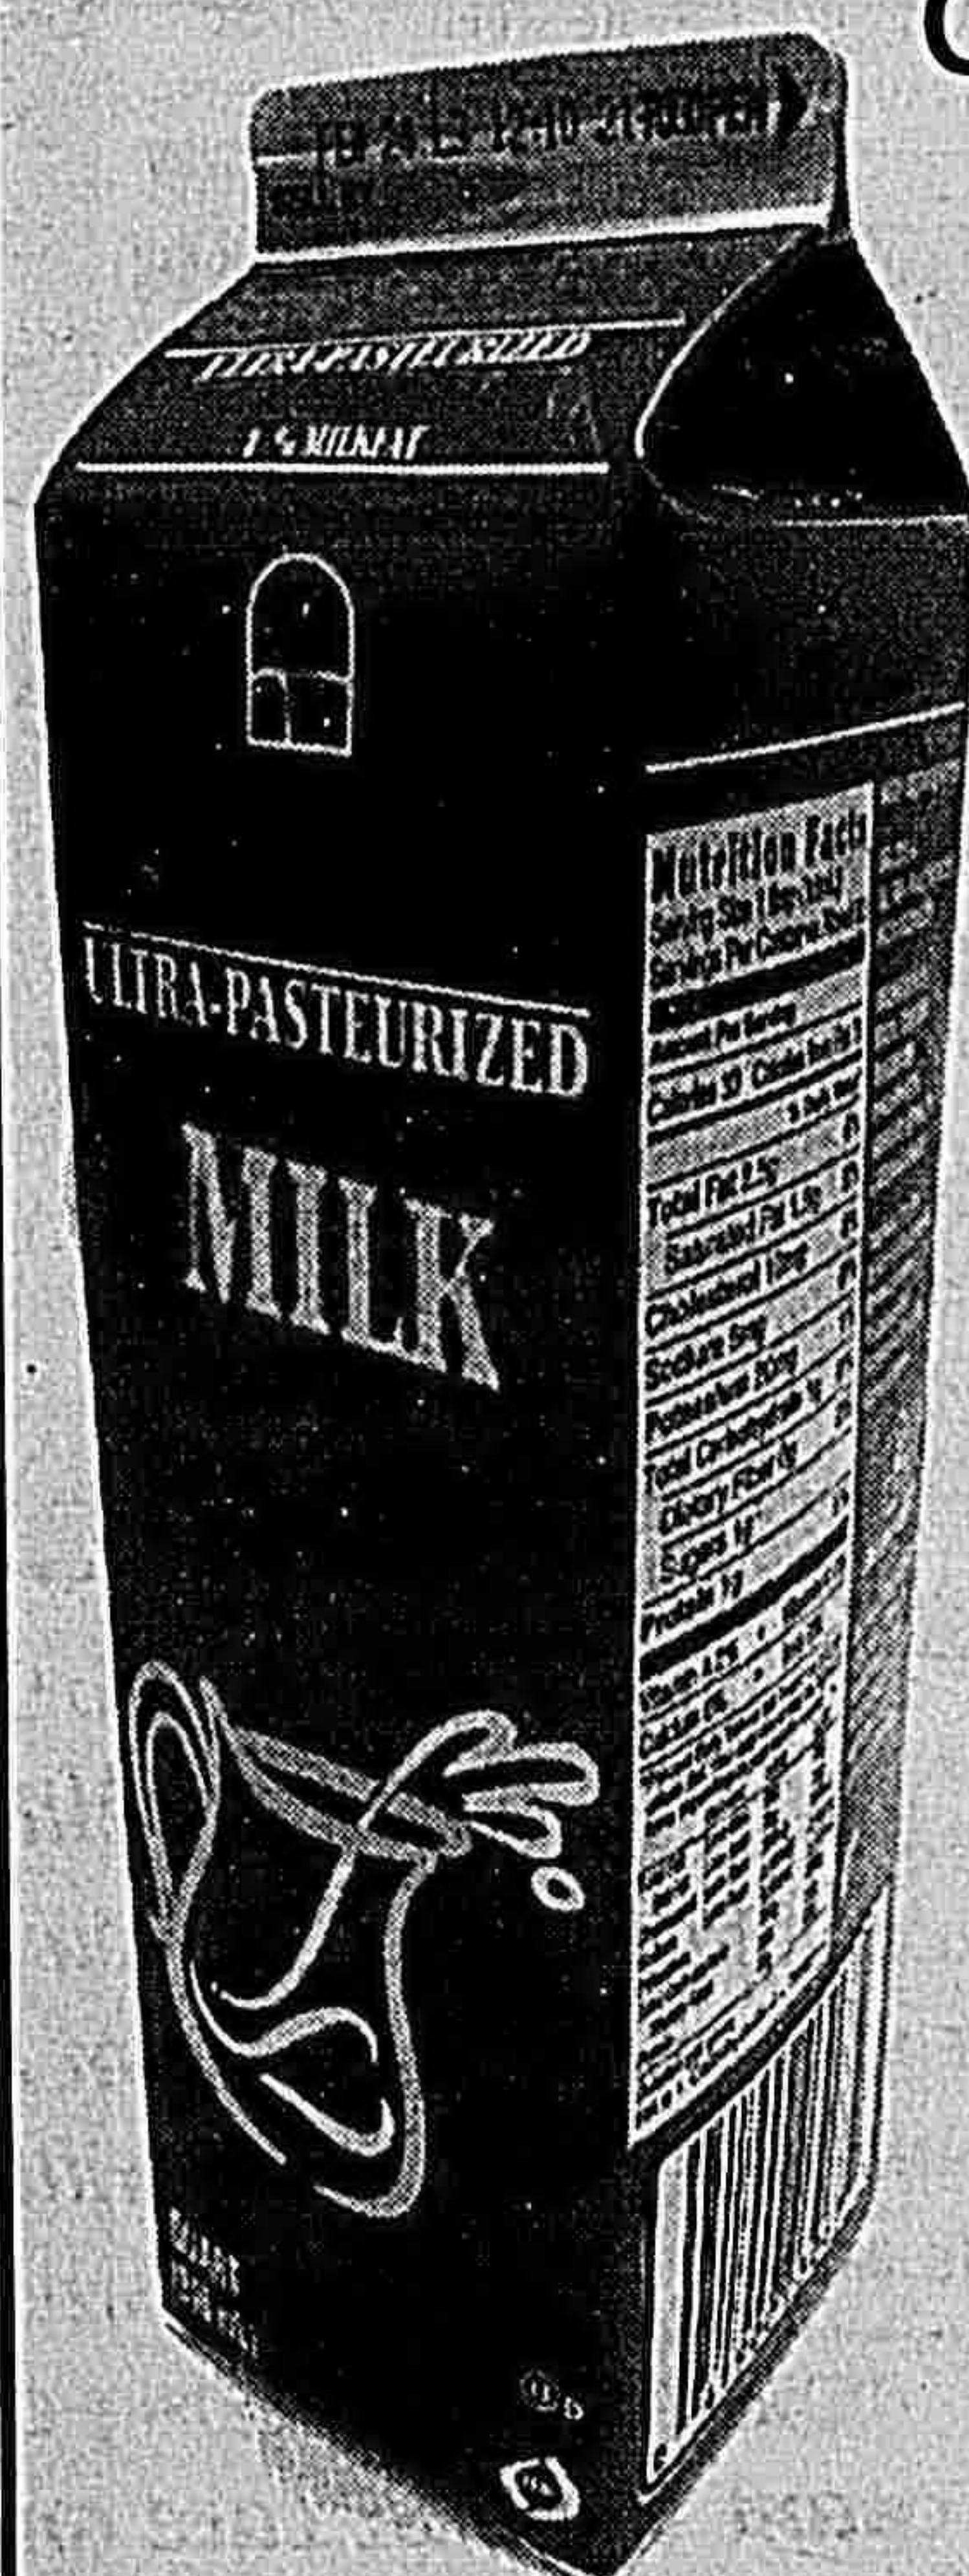

I don't remember this topic or anything about "Reichian" theory in my college biology courses. Yet, Wilhelm Reich set the stage for current research. Today, science tells us that we are not just a physical structure made of molecules, but the human organism, like everything else is composed of energy fields that are constantly interacting with one another. Any simple act from feeling with your hands to being touched by someone sends electro-chemical signals along the nervous system components of our body and in the process, energy is transferred and rearranged. It's what happens when we fall in love!

One of Reich's primary principles is that of the "Orgastic potency". "Orgastic" is not in my spell check either, but current findings about the health benefits of a sexual relationship, are linked to this Reichian notion that arriving at a good and pleasurable orgasm with another person is a heck of an important aspect to our achieving good health.

Among the most current research findings is that for both men and women, the frequency of sexual intercourse is associated with lower death rates. It was also found that frequent sexual intercourse—twice or more times a week—is correlated with lower incidence of heart disease and stroke. For women, a higher risk of breast cancer has been correlated with a lack of a sex partner and rare sexual intercourse—defined as less than once a month. It was also found that the sexual and reproductive health of women and men is directly influenced by sexual activity. Frequent sexual activity may also enhance fertility. Women and men have long reported that sexual activity relieves chronic pain including lower back pain. And, forget the headache excuse. Recent studies of orgasm and migraine headaches in both women and men resulted in pain relief!

More research may be needed, though, in order to convince the critics who still don't take this seriously. Perhaps you would like to volunteer. As for Wilhelm Reich, a pioneer in a scientific field that in his day was widely considered the unmentionable, he never got a fair shake. He should have never gone to jail, his writings should not have been burned, and his equipment should have never been destroyed. How much more could we have learned from his findings?

Gay school?

Every so often, I hear about a topic that really boils me and I have to put your column questions on hold for a week and write about it. Very soon there will be the first all gay high school opening in New York funded by the taxpayers. The basic premise is this: many gay high school kids are dropping out of school because of harassment and physical assault. So, this school is purportedly being used as a refuge and a place of safe education for gay students. I have so many problems with this on so many levels it's hard to separate!

Now, I will say first and foremost so we can get this part out the way, I have a problem with any student being harassed or assaulted in any way whether it be race based, weight based, sexual orientation based, size based, religion based, etc. The problem we all have here is that harassment and assault have unfortunately been occurring in school settings based on all of the above and more for as long as there have been schools and people. So, my initial basis is no harm should be happening to any student on well run school grounds. The "well run" part is truly the problem in many places. You see, my opinion is that the violence that occurs on any school grounds for any reason is due to lack of supervision and lack of appropriate punishment for the offenders. It really doesn't have to do with the reason someone is being bullied because trust me, kids will find something to pick on.

Am I wrong if didn't purposeful segregation in schools end a long time ago? Isn't this school in fact a segregationist project on taxpayer money? What happens if someone straight wants to get into this school? Do they get entrance? In the same vein can there be all straight schools? In this day and age can you just see applying this to race or weight or religion? Oh wait, religion does have its own schools but they are PRIVATE. Try to mention any religious references in a public school and just see what happens!

Do all of the teachers and administration need to be gay too and isn't that discrimination if someone does not get a position based on sexual orientation? This is the most slippery slope I think I've ever seen! The main problem I have here is that they are pulling out 3.2 million dollars of taxpayer money to do this project supposedly to keep these kids safe, but what they are truly doing is creating a false little contrived environment that will do nothing to prepare these kids for the real world of jobs and diversity.

PARENT'S PLACE

What about the taxpayers who don't feel the desire to support this. It seems to me that this experimental project should be funded by private organizations. This project is doing a disservice to the kids going to this school, to the taxpayers and to society at large. It is a giant step backwards. It will be very easy for advocates of the project to feel that my opinion and others like it are focusing on the sexual orientation issue only when voicing our objections to it. The fact is, this is not about sexual orientation. Although I do have to say that I am tired of so many in this society defining themselves by their behavior instead of just being a human being. It is about a failure on the part of schools to keep kids safe from harassment and about a dangerous precedent for segregation and discrimination to make a reappearance. I feel it is very important for people in our society to get away from defining themselves by their race, sexual orientation or other group. All individuals who are law abiding deserve to have basic safety and security.

Senate Drug Plan A Hard Pill To Swallow

AS REPORTED IN THE JUNE 23RD CHICAGO SUN-TIMES
BY ROBERT GENETSKI, A VETERAN CHICAGO ECONOMIST

As the details of the U.S. Senate plan to create a Medicare drug benefit emerge, it becomes apparent the plan is about as bad as one can imagine. Both House and Senate bills would require senior citizens to spend a significant amount of their own money in order to receive government benefits. Coverage would disappear after drug costs reached a certain level and then resume only if costs reached a considerably higher plateau.

In the final analysis, the Medicare plans being proposed will cover only 22% of senior citizens' drug costs. The seniors will pay the other 78% themselves.

What's The Answer For Now? Introducing... SAVE ON MEDS!

Save On Meds, a Lake County company is fighting to keep prescription medication costs to a minimum by providing a safe and reliable method of securing prescription medications from Canada at reasonable prices.

The Senate voted on June 20th to allow drugs to be imported from Canada, where prices are significantly lower, and the Canadian government has guaranteed the quality of the medication being exported into the U.S.

Hangar dance to celebrate 100th anniversary of flight

The public is invited to celebrate the 100th anniversary of powered flight, a Lake County community-wide patriotic event to express appreciation to the service men and women of Great Lakes.

A Patriotic Hangar Dance on Friday, Aug. 8 from 7-11 p.m. will feature two bands and complimentary hors d'oeuvres.

"The purpose of the aviation weekend event is to create a fun community event for Waukegan and Lake County," said Dave Brittsan, President of DB Aviation.

The hangars, located alongside an apron/taxiway at the airport, will be colorfully decorated "To help create a festive atmosphere in recognition of the remarkable feat of Orville and Wilbur Wright," said Jim Stanczak, airport manager and former U.S. Navy pilot. Aircraft such as a T-28 Trojan, a T-6 Texan and others will be parked outside the doors of the hangars.

According to Katie Spies, President/CEO of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce the two bands featured at the dance will be "The Boat Builders" and "The Caribbean Castaways." One hangar will be decorated in a Caribbean theme and the other in an American patriotic motif.

Performers in "The Caribbean Castaways" have played in the Florida Keys, Jamaica, Las Vegas, New York and elsewhere in the U.S. at clubs, diverse stages, festivals and other venues. The Caribbean band music is its own version of a combination of the music of Jimmy Buffet and Bob Marley and occasionally that of Santana. People dancing in this room will thrill to the sound of steel drums, keyboard, guitar and percussion instruments that they will be invited to play in rhythm with the music.

The second band, "The Boat Builders," is a well-known Lake County band that has performed in clubs throughout the Chicago metropolitan and southern Wisconsin area and in college towns for the past four years. Noah Arvidson, guitar player and manager for the band, said its music could be classified as progressive jam rock. Arvidson said "the band has just recorded its first CD entitled 'Celery Moonbeams' reflecting their version of well known musical styles performed by the Rolling Stones, Beatles, Rusted Root and Flaming Lips.

Tickets for the hangar dance may be obtained at the Waukegan City Hall located between West and Martin Luther King Streets in downtown Waukegan, DB Aviation headquartered at the McAree Road entrance to the airport and at the Lake County Chamber, 5221 W. Grand Ave., Gurnee. Tickets also may be ordered by calling 847-249-3800 or 847-244-0055 and can be purchased at the hangar door on Aug. 8.

Waukegan Mayor Richard Hyde, a former U.S. Air Force pilot, said "At least 500 people from southern Wisconsin and Illinois along with pilots from around the Midwest are expected to attend the dance." Hyde added that active military personnel could attend the dance without charge.

To reach the airport from Interstate 94 or Route 41 travel on Route 120 east to Green Bay Road or Lewis Avenue. Take either street north to York House Road and turn right from Green Bay or left from Lewis and drive to McAree Road turning north into the airport.

The event has been coordinated by Waukegan Port District, City of Waukegan, DB Aviation, Lake County Chamber and its affiliate chambers Gurnee, Waukegan & Hispanic Chambers of Commerce of Lake County, United States Navy League, United States Air Force Auxiliary, and Budweiser.

Recognized Silver Sponsors include Abbott Laboratories and Lake Forest Hospital, The Chicago Party Rental and The Custom Event. Recognized Bronze Sponsors are Consumers Cooperative Credit Union, Vista Health, and Waukegan Savings & Loan.

The planning committee is seeking additional corporate sponsors, restaurants and volunteers who would like to get involved in the weekend festivities. To inquire about corporate sponsorship call 847-249-3800.

Benefits of attending a bridal show

Whether you are newly engaged or almost ready for your big day, attending a bridal show can be very helpful in planning your wedding. You can meet and speak directly with many wedding professionals-all in one location! They can help you to get started planning or help you acquire those last minute services to make your event special and unique. Most bridal shows offer door prizes also.

Use this opportunity to:

- Gather information from exhibitors in a variety of wedding services.
- Talk with wedding professionals
- Compare services and prices
- Reserve your date immediately with your favorite exhibitors
- Register for prizes
- Try samples from caterers and bakeries
- See the latest fashions at the daily fashion shows
- Get great new ideas for your wedding

Top reasons to attend a bridal show:

1. An inexpensive and timely way to visit with many vendors from your area. Wedding professionals can offer some of the greatest ideas and valuable advice for planning your wedding.

2. One stop shopping' for any bride or groom who is on a tight schedule. A bridal show offers aisles of every vendor you will need, making it possible to plan your wedding in practically one day!

3. Choreographed fashion shows are held for you to see the newest styles in wedding gowns, bridesmaids gowns, and tuxedos.

4. Nervous about your in-laws hitting it off with your family? This is a great opportunity to get your mom and your fiancé's mom to spend the day together. Nothing will bring them together quicker than working on a common cause.

5. You will never leave empty handed! Exhibitors offer much needed information for you to take and review in the privacy of your own home.

6. Girl's day out! This is a fun day to spend with your bridesmaids and closest girlfriends before you exchange vows in a few short months.

7. Get your husband-to-be in the planning mood. This is the best way to get his input on wedding plans.

Tips for attending a bridal show:

- Make sure to register at the door. You may have to wait in line but, be patient, this is well worth the time.
- Bring preprinted self adhesive address labels if you have them. This will save you time and allow you to sign up for anything you want very quickly. Be sure to include your Name, Address, Phone Number and Date of your Wedding.
- Bring a pen and print very clearly when registering for anything.
- Bring your checkbook if you want to actually book any services, or hold dates with a deposit. Be sure to check on refund policies before giving any money and read the contract carefully before signing.
- Collect any information that you are interested in-take it home to look over again when you have more time.
- If you are out of town, send your mother or friend to register you for prizes and collect information on services you need.
- It is nice if your fiancé attends with you if he is interested. About 30% do attend, so he won't be the only one there.
- Arrive at least one hour prior to the fashion show time that you want to see. Seating is on a first come-first served basis.
- Be specific when you request information from an exhibitor. Let them know the date, time and location of your event that way you can both be sure of the availability.

And finally, ENJOY THE SHOW.

The Beauty and Bridal Showplace provides Lake County brides ideas for the perfect wedding

If he popped the question and your relationship has reached the next level, which means it is time to learn the lingo. Why, you ask? Because it's time to try on the A-line Moir gown with the chapel train and the bobbin lace.

The days between "yes" and "I do" are the time when couples decide and plan how they will celebrate their wedding day. Planning a wedding can not, one, be time consuming but also expensive. According to a survey in Brides Magazine, the average couple spends over $19,000. If you're engaged and your wedding plans aren't complete, plan to attend Lake County's Beauty and Bridal Showplace Sunday, Aug. 3. From 11:30 a.m.-3 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Mundelein.

While at the show, be sure to leave enough time to talk with the exhibitors, get great ideas while comparison shopping, taste samples, smell roses, enjoy the entertainment and fashion show displaying today's brides. With everything under one roof, attending the Beauty and Bridal Showplace is certainly a time-saver as well as a money-saving activity. It is a good idea to bring the checkbook to lock in show only specials with the exhibitors although the show admission is FREE of charge.

While attending the show the bride and guests can speak to professionals, collect literature, sample wedding cakes and chocolates, take in the sweet smells of numerous floral arrangements, along with over 500 high-quality name brand Rio Roses, even hire a service right on the spot. Whatever your taste, where ever you are in your wedding planning, you're sure to find fresh new ideas and maybe even a cost-saver. A few highlights for the day is the entertainment featuring the McNulty Irish Dancers and local vocalist, Kathy Pobolis of Grayslake. The fashion show featuring the hottest styles is by Kimberly's Bridal Boutique of Lakemoor immediately follows. Another highlight is a new company calledura Working Beauty, which allows you to see what you look like in a variety of hairstyles via computer.

Everyone attending the show has a chance to win fabulous prizes to take home that afternoon. The official media sponsor, Lakeland Media, will be giving away $100 to help one Lake County Bride. Dave Sherman, Lakeland Vice President of Sales and Marketing said, "We're pleased to be a part of the bridal show which offers free admission and is geared toward the Lake County Bride and her budget. The promoters of the show have seen much excitement from exhibitors in this Lake County Only show to help local business owners grow their business. Contact 847-363-4090 for additional show information.

Alice K. Krogh

Age 60, passed away Saturday, July 26, 2003 at her home in Antioch.

Alice is survived by her husband of 42 years, Roger Earl Krogh, whom she married in 1961; her two sons, Roger Roy Krogh of Antioch and Kevin Krogh of Antioch; her grandchildren; her brother and many other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her father, Lawrence, her mother, Blanche; a brother and a sister.

A funeral service was held July 30 at 8 p.m. at Strang Funeral Chapel and Crematorium in Grayslake. Friends of the family visited from 4-8 p.m. on July 30 at the funeral chapel. Memorials may be given to Condell Hospice, 115 W. Church St., Libertyville, IL 60048 and Bethesda Lutheran Home.

Catherine Barlow (nee Walshe)

Born in the Glen of Aherlow in Co. Tipperary, Ireland, passed away peacefully on July 22, 2003 at her home in Antioch surrounded by her family. She was the seventh of a family of nine children.

She is survived by her children, Louise Barlow of Los Angeles, Calif., Donal Barlow (Robin) of Lindenhurst, Teresa Zens (Sebastian) of Cologne, Germany, Margaret Coleman (John) of Rolling Meadows, and Catherine Lieberman (David) of Fairport, NY. She is also survived by four sisters and two brothers in Ireland and 10 grandchildren.

Catherine completed her high school education in Ireland and this was followed by training in nursing at Poole General Hospital in Dorset, England, resulting in her qualifying as a State Registered Nurse. She was proud of her profession and a conscientious and skilled practitioner. At Poole Hospital she met a resident, Dr. John Barlow and their marriage took place in November 1951. Her husband enrolled in the Colonial Medical Service and the couple spent four years in what is now Ghana, where Catherine was able to pursue her own nursing interests in the operating room and in "bush clinics."

Returning to England in 1956, the couple entered a Group Family Practice and Catherine continued to work part time as a practice nurse. In 1969 the family immigrated to the United States, and settled in Antioch. While raising her family, she continued with private duty nursing well past the usual retirement age. Catherine was a person with a great zest for life. She enjoyed sports of all sorts and was a devoted fan of both the Chicago Bears and Chicago Bulls. She was an avid, and competitive bridge player. She treasured the friends that she made over the years while playing bridge. She had a wonderful sense of humor and was generous to a fault. She was a devout Roman Catholic and she found solace and comfort in her faith during her long illness. She will be missed by her family and many friends.

A Memorial Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Friday, Aug. 1 at 10 a.m. at St. Peter's Catholic Church, 557 Lake St., Antioch. Final interment will be in the Glen of Aherlow, Ireland. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Benedictine Abbey, 12605 224th Ave., Benet Lake, Wis. 53102 or the Antioch Rescue Squad in her memory. Strang Funeral Home of Antioch handled the arrangements.

Gloria Cusker

In loving memory of Gloria Cusker, formerly Gloria Chuk, age 79, who passed into God's hands on Sunday, July 20. Mrs. Cusker worked for years in the Fox Lake area, and eventually retired from Illinois Bell Telephone in Libertyville in 1977. She loved her work, her family and her friends. We Do Not Knowingly Accept Ads For Free/Giveaway Animals

If you must give up your beloved pet, please consider these suggestions.

*Free animal ads suggest that there is something wrong with the animal, or that it has no value.

*Some people who respond to these free animal ads are imposters and are only concerned about making a profit and not the animal's welfare.

*Charging a fee to a potential pet owner confirms the responsibility of pet ownership for an entire lifetime of that pet. For more information, please contact the Humane Society.

Workplace Appreciation is Contagious

By Scott T. Fleischmann

As I spent yet another weekend serving those who made a choice to disregard that service, I pondered what it would be like if everyone decided simultaneously to show appreciation. I started by imagining the changes to my own life if I showed more humble gratitude, and how that would affect others.

As a model, I looked first at family relationships. My wife has expressed appreciation for those times that I provided the guidance on saving rather than spending. Likewise, I have shared my appreciation with her when she has reminded me of my neglected tasks. (I should add that she has shown grace when she has reminded me a second or third time. That grace, of course, added to my appreciation.)

Some of my children have expressed thanks for my authoritarian guidance, albeit not when it was given. I have shown gratitude for their dedication, diligence, and guidance to me, albeit not as often as desirable. Appreciation is a significant factor in those relationships. I have, in fact, learned this lesson from them, and from friends. For that, I am thankful.

With that knowledge in mind, I was ready to project the theory on the workplace. Vendors would be thankful for my positive responses. Buoyed by that reaction, they will cheerfully provide my needs. And when they have not met my expectations, they will correct the problem with expeditious grace. Those choices would be made because of the relationship that we have built.

Likewise, all peer relationships would thrive because of the appreciation that we have shown each other. Hurtful competition would be replaced with helpful guidance and correction. Encouragement would abound, and the supportive nature of those actions would be seen as nurturing to all that observed our relationships, as would our mutual growth.

Subordinates would be diligent and thankful because they worked for a man who showed his appreciation for their efforts. The result would be increased productivity. Their home life and outside relationships would improve because of that new found gratitude.

Customers would be even more diligent as I showed more appreciation. Invoices would be paid on time. Needed input for projects would be prompt. Improved relationships increase honesty and punctuality.

Finally, those to whom I report would emphasize the contributions made. Guidance and direction would still be present, but it would not sting as much because of the mutual appreciation.

Taking off the rose colored glasses, I realized that there is no Utopia on earth. All of my appreciation will not create heaven. Yet, when I get to that final destination I will have missed my last chance to show gratitude to those remaining.

That missed opportunity is the concern. As I go to work tomorrow, how many relationships can I improve by recognizing the efforts of others? Will lives be changed? Can I improve the lives of others by affirming their efforts? What will change if I show more appreciation?

People like to know that they are appreciated. They are thankful for those who show gratitude. How could your life change by showing more in the workplace?

Pet of the Week

My name is Brandi Moses Montellano. I was the Montellano's miniature poodle for 16 1/2 years. I loved when any member of my family came home because I would jump, yelp and wag my tail with excitement. I loved getting treats at the bank and playing catch with my sister. I especially loved the outdoors and cuddling with my family. But most of all, my favorite thing to do, even though I'd often get in trouble, was climbing on a chair to get on top of the table in hopes of finding something tasty to eat!
